Join the Team and Keep on Learning

FEMA

Gain valuable experience helping disaster survivors

Work in a fast-paced, diverse and dynamic environment and build your professional network.

Develop administrative, leadership and management skills.

Travel the country and experience different cultures and communities.

FEMA needs on-call reservists in several cadres, including:

Disaster Survivor Assistance

Logistics

External Affairs

Hazard Mitigation

Public Assistance

Individual Assistance

Information Technology

FEMA Reservists, Making a Difference

The Federal Emergency Management Agency coordinates and supports federal disaster response with states, territories, tribal nations and local communies.

"You have to be flexible and want to go and help. So if you have those qualities, come on down. FEMA's looking for you!"

Talon Curtis
Individual Assistance Specialist

Work is intermittent; deployments may last from a few weeks to several months.

Most reservists are expected to travel to a disaster site within 48 hours of request.

Salary is dependent on positons, background and experience and is paid only while deployed.

Healthcare benefits available.

Travel expenses are paid by FEMA.

For more information:

☎ 1-866-896-8003

FEMA-HC-ServiceDesk@fema.dhs.gov

http://careers.fema.gov/reservists-program