San Diego, Calif. — One week remains for survivors of the Jan. 21-23, 2024, San Diego County severe storm and flooding disaster to apply for FEMA assistance for temporary lodging, basic home repairs, personal property losses and other disaster-related expenses. The deadline to apply is Friday, April 19.

Apply for FEMA Assistance

- The easiest way to contact FEMA is to call the Helpline.
 - Call toll-free 800-621-3362, 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. PT, daily.
 - Multilingual operators are available to answer questions, create and update applications, and assist with appeals.
- Survivors have access to FEMA 24/7/365 on the website and mobile app.
 - Apply for assistance, update information and submit documents at DisasterAssistance.gov.
 - Use the FEMA Mobile App to apply and review the application progress.

Help is available in most languages. If you use a relay service, such as video relay (VRS), captioned telephone or other service, give FEMA the number for that service. SBA disaster assistance loans

Survivors who applied for disaster assistance from FEMA may be referred to the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). SBA disaster loans may cover losses that are not fully covered by insurance or other sources. Completing the application may make you eligible for other FEMA assistance, such as disaster related car repairs, essential household items, and other expenses. If your application is approved, you are not required to accept an SBA disaster loan.

FEMA

Businesses may borrow up to $2 million for any combination of property damage or working capital (Economic Injury Disaster Loans). Homeowners may borrow up to $500,000 from SBA to repair or replace their primary residence. Homeowners and renters may borrow up to $100,000 to repair or replace personal property.

Applicants may apply online at sba.gov/disaster. Applicants may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955, or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance. If you are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability, please dial 7-1-1 to access telecommunications relay services.
