

Disaster Unemployment Assistance Available to Flood-Affected Workers

Release Date: Oct 1, 2018

Workers who lost their jobs temporarily or permanently as a direct result of the flooding in Cameron, Hidalgo and Jim Wells counties from June 19 through July 13, 2018, may be eligible for federally subsidized disaster unemployment assistance (DUA).

DUA is available to survivors who:

- Would not be eligible for normal unemployment benefits, such as self-employed persons and farm workers.
- Worked or were self-employed or scheduled to begin work or self-employment in the declared disaster counties.
- Can no longer work or perform services due to physical damage or destruction to the place of employment as a direct result of the flooding.
- Establish that the work or self-employment they can no longer perform is a direct result of the flooding.
- Cannot perform work or self-employment due to an injury as a direct result of the flooding.
- Became the breadwinner or major support of household due to the death of the head of household.

FEMA

Page 1 of 2

Applications may be made online through Texas Workforce Center's website, twc.state.tx.us/jobseekers/disaster-unemployment-assistance, or by calling the TWC's Tele- Center at 800-939-6631 7:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. weekdays and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekends.

To receive DUA benefits, all required documentation must be submitted within 21 days of when the DUA application is filed. This includes Social Security number, a copy of the most recent federal income tax form or check stubs, and documentation to support that the survivor was working or self- employed when the disaster occurred.

