Low-interest Disaster Loans for Businesses, Homeowners and Renters

The primary source of federal funding for long-term disaster recovery not covered by insurance is the Small Business Administration. SBA offers disaster assistance in the form of low interest loans to businesses and private nonprofit organizations of any size, homeowners, and renters.

For businesses, SBA disaster loans may help repair or replace disaster-damaged or destroyed real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory, and other business assets. Applicants may be eligible for a loan amount increase up to 20 percent of their physical damages for mitigation purposes. Eligible small businesses and nonprofit organizations may also apply for working capital to help overcome an economic injury.

Homeowners, renters, and businesses that were affected by Hurricane Ida may apply for disaster loans using SBA's secure website at <https://disasterloanassistance.sba.gov/ela/s/>, and should apply under SBA declaration #17258. For more information, applicants may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 (800-877-8339 for the deaf and hard-of-hearing), or email DisasterCustomerService@sba.gov.

The application filing deadline for physical damage loans is Jan. 28, 2022.

The application filing deadline for economic injury loans is Aug. 1, 2022.
