- Activity: Create-A-Kit Art - Design your own emergency supply kit as an art project.
- Activity: Create-A-Kit - Design your own emergency supply kit.
- Emergency Kit Craft - This activity helps kids understand the importance of being prepared while making the learning process fun and engaging. They get to exercise creativity and take home a valuable tool for safety and peace of mind.

- Materials Needed:

- Small, sturdy boxes (like shoeboxes)
- Markers, crayons, and stickers for decorating
- Paper and pens
- Plastic bags
- Bandages, small first aid items (adhesive bandages, antiseptic wipes)
- Mini flashlight or glow sticks
- Granola bars or small, non-perishable snacks
- Water bottles
- Whistle
- Emergency contact information cards

Activity Steps:

- Decorate the Kit Box: Let the kids decorate their boxes with markers, crayons, stickers, and anything else they like. This makes the kit personal and memorable.
- Talk About Emergencies: Discuss different types of emergencies (like natural disasters or getting lost) and what items might be helpful in each situation.
- Prepare the Items: Hand out the various items listed and help the kids pack them into their boxes. Explain why each item is important.
- Create Emergency Contact Cards: Have each child write down important contact information on a card, including names and phone numbers of family members. Place these cards in the boxes.

- Personalize with Extra Items: Allow kids to add one or two personal items to their kit (a small toy, a family photo) to make it comforting.

Role-Playing: End the activity with a role-playing session where kids practice using their kits in a pretend emergency situation.

- Junior High (Grades 7-8)

Activities that encourage personal responsibility and community awareness.

- Be A Hero (Challenge for learning about emergency actions)
