

Disaster Recovery Centers Hours of Operation and Locations Will Change

---

Release Date: 7/6, 2018

HONOLULU – Some Disaster Recovery Centers (DRC), established to assist Kauai and Honolulu residents in applying for benefits following April's flooding, will merge and change their hours of operations beginning this weekend. Hanalei Elementary School in Kauai and Aina Haina Elementary School in Honolulu will remain open.

Jointly operated by Kaua'i County, the City and County of Honolulu, the state of Hawai'i, and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the Disaster Recovery Centers offer homeowners, renters, businesses and nonprofits organizations affected by the April flooding, mudslides and landslides, a one-stop shop for disaster assistance.

Residents can still register with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and apply for low-interest disaster loans with the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) by visiting the remaining DRC locations.

The centers' new hours of operation and location changes are:
