

By the Numbers: Hurricane Katrina

LOUISIANA

738,318 individuals and households

approved for assistance to help with housing and disaster-related expenses

$5.2 billion

in assistance provided to survivors for housing and disaster-related expenses

$3.7 billion provided in housing assistance

$1.5 billion provided in assistance to survivors for disaster-related expenses

$1.3 billion

provided in Hazard Mitigation to lessen the impact of future disasters

427 projects funded in Hazard Mitigation

$11.7 billion

Federal share provided for public works projects

MISSISSIPPI

273,829 individuals and households

approved for assistance to help with housing and disaster-related expenses

$1.3 billion

in assistance provided to survivors for housing and disaster-related expenses

$877.4 million provided in housing assistance

$419 million provided in assistance to survivors for disaster-related expenses

$314.7 million

provided in Hazard Mitigation to lessen the impact of future disasters

530 projects funded in Hazard Mitigation

$3.1 billion

Federal share provided for public works projects

ALABAMA

55,827 individuals and households

approved for assistance to help with housing and disaster-related expenses

$128.5 million

in assistance provided to survivors for housing and disaster-related expenses

$90.5 million provided in housing assistance

$38 million provided in assistance to survivors for disaster-related expenses

$53.4 million

provided in Hazard Mitigation to lessen the impact of future disasters

237 projects funded in Hazard Mitigation

$116.8 million

Federal share provided for public works projects

FLORIDA

$10.6 million provided in Hazard Mitigation to lessen the impact of future disasters

26 projects funded in Hazard Mitigation

$192.8 million Federal share provided for public works projects

Assistance Programs

Individual Assistance provides survivors with assistance for housing, damages, and other needs related to a disaster.

Public Assistance provides Federal funds to assist with state, local, tribal, and territorial government costs for public works projects.

Hazard Mitigation provides funds to help communities reduce or eliminate long term risk to people and property from natural hazards.