This Self Evaluation Sheet has been developed to help you understand the criteria that you must address in your Narrative Statement when applying for the Staffing for Adequate Fire and Emergency Response (SAFER) Grant. The Peer Reviewers will review all the criteria in your Narrative Statement to assess the degree to which your proposal best describes your organization and community risks, the requirements you have listed that will reduce those risks, and how your project(s) align with the SAFER Grant priorities.

(1) Project Description

Using the information provided within the Project Description portion of the Narrative Statement, as well as the general questions and activity-specific questions within the entire application package, the Peer Reviewers will assess the degree to which the proposal addresses the need for the recruitment of new volunteer firefighters and/or retention of current firefighters. In order to receive a higher rating, the Narrative Statement should clearly discuss all of the points below.

- What are the problems and/or issues the fire departments, who the organization will be reaching with this grant, are experiencing in recruiting new volunteer firefighters? What problems and/or issues are the same fire departments experiencing in retaining members?
- What is the organization's implementation plan to directly address the problems and/or issues discussed above? What are the methods and specific steps that will be used to achieve the plan?
- How will the recruitment of new volunteer firefighters and/or retention of current volunteer firefighters impact the operational needs or capabilities of the departments participating in this application?
- What are the specific benefits the new volunteer firefighters and/or retention of current volunteer firefighters will provide to the fire departments participating in the application and their respective communities?
- What are the organizations procurement practices and timelines outlining the chronological steps to complete the activities requested in the application?

Below are the same scoring dimensions that the Peer Reviewers will use to rate your application. Using the criteria below, rate your own application and assess how your application might be rated by the Peer Reviewers.
