INTRODUCTION

Purpose

Emergency Support Function (ESF) #15 – External Affairs provides accurate, coordinated, timely, and accessible information to affected audiences, including governments, media, the private sector, and the local populace, including children; those with disabilities and others with access and functional needs,; and individuals with limited English proficiency.¹

Scope

ESF #15 encompasses all Federal departments and agencies that may require incident communications and external affairs support or whose external affairs assets may be employed during incidents requiring a coordinated Federal response. ESF #15 coordinates Federal actions to provide the required external affairs support to local, state, tribal, territorial, insular area, and Federal incident response entities.² ESF #15 integrates the components of Public Affairs, Congressional Affairs, Intergovernmental Affairs (local, state, tribal, territorial, and insular area coordination), and the private sector under the coordinating auspices of External Affairs. Another component, the Joint Information Center (JIC), ensures the coordinated release of information under ESF #15. The Planning and Products component of External Affairs develops all external and internal communications strategies and products for the ESF #15 organization. Personnel who work under the auspices of External Affairs must be familiar with the provisions of ESF #15 in the event that the ESF is activated. Non-Federal external affairs elements are fully integrated into ESF #15.

During an incident, local, state, tribal, territorial, insular area, and Federal authorities share responsibility for communicating information regarding the incident to the public. These actions are a critical component of incident management and must be fully integrated with all other operational actions to ensure the following objectives are met:

¹ Additional information about External Affairs can be found in the ESF #15 Standard Operating Procedure, located on the Department of Homeland Security (DHS)/Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) website.

² The provisions of this annex apply to any incident for which the DHS Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs or the FEMA Director of External Affairs decides to activate the ESF in response to an incident where significant interagency coordination is required.

Emergency Support Function #15 – External Affairs Annex

- Delivery of incident preparedness, health, response, and recovery instructions to those directly affected by the incident.
- Dissemination of incident information to the public, including children; those with disabilities and other access and functional needs; and individuals with limited English proficiency populations.³

The ESF #15 structure provides a supporting mechanism to develop, coordinate, and deliver messages. Federal department and agency communicators develop, coordinate, and deliver information and instructions to the public related to:

- Federal assistance to the incident-affected area.
- Federal departmental/agency response.
- National preparations.
- Protective measures.
- Impact on non-affected areas.

RELATIONSHIP TO THE WHOLE COMMUNITY

This section describes how ESF #15 relates to other elements of the whole community.

Individuals/Community Organizations

The public, both individuals and community organizations, have an important role in assisting with rapid dissemination of information, identifying unmet needs, and mutual support.

Local, State, Tribal, Territorial, and Insular Area Governments

Local, state, tribal, territorial, and insular area authorities retain the primary responsibility for communicating health and safety instructions for their population. Nothing in this annex limits the authority of these authorities to release information regarding an incident under their jurisdiction, particularly if it involves immediate health and safety issues. In the unlikely event that local, state, tribal, territorial, and insular area governments are unable to perform these responsibilities, the Federal Government may provide vital operational health and safety information to the affected population. Nothing in this document should be construed as diminishing or usurping those responsibilities.

Private Sector/Nongovernmental Organizations

The private sector is a component of external affairs. Coordinated communication and collaboration with the private sector supports effective incident response by integrating private sector capabilities and information into response operations. Information must be coordinated across various levels of government to identify needs, convey resources available for business recovery, and facilitate collaborative support for economic recovery.

Information must be disseminated about response and other important information to the private sector through public outreach and education methods, such as media campaigns, workshops, roundtables, and trainings.

Federal Government

Pursuant to Presidential directive, the Secretary of Homeland Security is charged with ensuring that, as appropriate, information related to domestic incidents is gathered and provided to the public.

External affairs efforts are coordinated in support of unified public information as directed by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs or the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Director of External Affairs.

The DHS Public Affairs' National Joint Information Center (NJIC) is activated during incidents requiring a coordinated Federal response to serve as the Federal incident communications coordination center. The DHS/FEMA External Affairs Ready Room is also activated as needed in addition to all natural disasters and other incidents when DHS/FEMA is the lead Federal agency for coordinating communications.

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) have communication centers to coordinate the release of public health and medical information to the whole community, as appropriate. Specific information on Federal Government actions are described in the following sections.

CORE CAPABILITIES AND ACTIONS

ESF Role Aligned to Core Capabilities

The following table lists the response core capability that ESF #15 most directly supports, along with the particular ESF #15 actions related to that core capability. All ESFs support the following core capabilities: Planning, Operational Coordination, and Public Information and Warning.

Core Capability	ESF #15 – External Affairs
Public Information and Warning	External Affairs <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provides accurate, coordinated, and timely information to affected audiences during incidents requiring a coordinated Federal response.• Provides communications support and advice to the leaders during an incident.• Conducts communications planning.

Department of Homeland Security (DHS)	DHS Headquarters <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinates Federal incident communications using a domestic communications strategy following an actual or potential terrorist threat or incident. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – National Terrorism and Advisory System (NTAS): Communicates information about terrorist threats by providing timely, detailed information to the public, government agencies, first responders, airports and other transportation hubs, as well as the private sector. It recognizes that Americans all share responsibility for the Nation’s security and should always be aware of the heightened risk of a terrorist attack in the United States and of what they should do. After reviewing the available information, the Secretary of Homeland Security will decide in coordination with other Federal entities whether an NTAS alert should be issued. NTAS will be conducted within the guidelines listed in the National Prevention Framework. – Federal Interagency NTAS Coordination: The White House Office of Communications, supported by DHS Public Affairs, will immediately assess the requirement for a public announcement with appropriate senior Federal counterterrorism communicators. Recommendations will be coordinated with the National Security Staff and the DHS Counter Terrorism Advisory Board, which makes a formal recommendation to the Secretary of Homeland Security about releasing an NTAS alert. Announcement of an NTAS alert will be conducted within the scope of the overall Federal communications strategy as directed by White House Office of Communications. • The following systems are used for any type of actual or potential incident to communicate pertinent preparedness or response information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – National Incident Communications Conference Line (NICCL): A standing conference line designated, maintained, and supported by DHS Public Affairs as the primary means for interagency incident communications information sharing during an incident requiring Federal coordination. – State Incident Communications Conference Line (SICCL): A dedicated Federal-state incident communications conference line. – Private Sector Incident Communications Conference Line (PICCL): A standing line to provide timely information to critical infrastructure communicators.

Support Agency	Actions
Department of Commerce	National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> NWR is a nationwide network of radio stations broadcasting continuous weather information direct from a nearby National Weather Service (NWS) office. NWR broadcasts NWS warnings, watches, forecasts, and other hazard information 24 hours a day. In conjunction with the Emergency Alert System (EAS), NWR provides an all-hazards radio network, making it a single source for comprehensive weather and emergency information. The Secretary of Homeland Security can use the NWR network to send target alerts anywhere in the country. In addition, this type of activation also activates DHS/FEMA's EAS network at the local level. NWR also broadcasts warning and post-event information for all types of hazards, including natural (e.g., earthquakes and volcano activity), manmade (e.g., chemical or environmental incidents), and terrorism-related hazards.
Department of the Interior	Bureau of Indian Affairs Emergency Management <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Oversees the Tribal Assistance Coordination Group (TAC-G), consisting of multiple Federal partners, to assure the government-to-government relationship as it relates to cooperation, collaboration, information sharing, and emergency response. Provides coordination support to DHS/FEMA by providing subject matter experts and tribal liaisons during incidents. Manages Federal coordination and response to Tribal emergencies and incidents, in support of Tribal All Hazards Response Operations (A-HERO) and the Tribal Coordination Support Annex.
Department of Justice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), leads communications about the investigation if an incident is deemed to be terrorist-related. Provides an ESF #15 External Affairs Officer, through the FBI or Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, if ESF #15 is activated. Provides guidance, promulgates regulations, conducts investigations and compliance reviews, and enforces Federal civil rights laws, including their application to emergency management generally; and the use of appropriate auxiliary aids and services necessary for effective communication with individuals with disabilities and meaningful access to limited English proficient persons, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
Department of State	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Serves, in conjunction with the White House Office of Communications, as the Federal lead for delivering communications pertaining to a domestic incident to international partners. Leads communications for U.S. residents living overseas. Uses the NICCL and SICCL protocols in conjunction with DHS during incidents when overseas incidents affect domestic audiences or when use of these Federal communications protocols would benefit communicators responding to U.S. media.
Other Departments and Agencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All Federal departments and agencies should support the National Response Framework ESF #15 organization and staff.
