I. INTRODUCTION TO THE NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

The National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) was established by the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968. The Act was in response to Congress finding that:

- Flooding disasters required unforeseen disaster relief and placed an increased burden on the nation's resources.
- The installation of flood preventive and protective measures and other public programs designed to reduce losses caused by flood damage had not been sufficient to adequately protect against the growing exposure to flood losses as a matter of national policy. A reasonable method of slowing the risk of flood losses would be through a program of flood insurance that could complement and encourage preventive and protective measures.
- Many factors made it uneconomical for private insurance industry carriers to make flood insurance available to those in need of such protection on reasonable terms and conditions.
- A program of flood insurance with large-scale participation of the Federal Government and the maximum extent practicable by the private industry was feasible and could be initiated.

Congress stated that the purpose in passing the Act was to:

- Authorize a flood insurance program that, over time, could be made available across the country through the cooperative effort of the Federal Government and the private insurance industry.
- Provide flexibility in the program so that such flood insurance would be based on workable methods of pooling risks, minimizing costs, and distributing burdens equitably among the general public and those who would be protected by flood insurance.
- Encourage state and local governments to use wisely the lands under their jurisdiction by considering the hazards of flood when rendering decisions on the future use of such land in order to minimize damage.

From 1968 until 1979, the NFIP was administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. When the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) was established in 1979, administration of the NFIP was transferred to that agency. In March 2003, FEMA became part of the newly created U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

The NFIP is a program in which communities formally agree, as evidenced by their adoption of codes and ordinances, to regulate the use of their floodprone lands. In return, FEMA makes flood insurance coverage available on buildings and their contents throughout the community. FEMA has traditionally identified these flood hazard areas on maps that are provided to communities for carrying out their responsibilities. The maps are also used by insurance agents/producers to determine rates and by lenders to determine purchase requirements.

II. THE WRITE YOUR OWN PROGRAM

The Write Your Own (WYO) Program, begun in 1983, is a cooperative arrangement between FEMA and the private insurance industry. The WYO Program operates within the context of the NFIP and is subject to its rules and regulations. WYO allows participating property and casualty insurance companies to write and service Federal flood insurance in their own names. The companies receive an expense allowance for policies written and claims processed while the Federal Government retains responsibility for underwriting losses. Individual WYO Companies may, to the extent possible, and consistent with Program rules and regulations, match their flood business to their normal business practices for other lines of insurance. Many agents/producers have elected to move or place their flood policies with 1 or more of the WYO Companies they represent.

In brief, the agent/producer has these options:

- Place all business with 1 or more WYO Companies;
- Place business with both the NFIP directly and with 1 or more WYO Companies; or
- Place all flood insurance directly with the NFIP (referred to as "NFIP Direct business").

The goals of the Program are to increase the policy base, improve services, and involve the insurance companies.

III. TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

In order to provide the most efficient service to policyholders, follow these procedures when requesting technical assistance in connection with the sale and servicing of Standard Flood Insurance Policies. It is essential that all parties – WYO Companies, the NFIP Bureau and Statistical Agent (NFIP Bureau), the NFIP Servicing Agent, insurance agents/producers, and adjusters – comply.

A. WYO Companies

Agents/producers and adjusters servicing flood insurance business through a WYO Company should direct questions and requests for technical assistance to the company itself. If the WYO Company needs technical assistance, it will contact its NFIP Bureau business consultant. If the business consultant, with the assistance of technical experts, cannot provide the needed assistance, the NFIP Bureau will direct the inquiry to FEMA for an answer.

B. NFIP Servicing Agent (NFIP Direct)

Agents/producers and adjusters servicing flood insurance business through the NFIP Servicing Agent should contact the NFIP Servicing Agent for answers to technical questions or the resolution of technical problems connected with the NFIP. If the NFIP Servicing Agent cannot provide the needed assistance, it will contact FEMA for an answer.

C. Special Direct Facility

Agents/producers and adjusters servicing flood insurance policies identified as Severe Repetitive Loss (SRL) properties should contact the Special Direct Facility established by the NFIP Servicing Agent for technical assistance. See the Severe Repetitive Loss section of this manual for more information.
