

The Unthinkable: Lessons from Survivors

Amanda Ripley

Journalist and Author

Amanda Ripley is a journalist and a senior fellow at the Emerson Collective. She is the author, most recently, of The Smartest Kids in the World—and How They Got That Way, a New York Times bestseller. Her first book, The Unthinkable: Who Survives When Disaster Strikes—and Why, was described by NPR as “the thinking person’s manual for getting out alive.” The Unthinkable was published in 15 countries and turned into a PBS documentary.

Amanda has written feature stories about disasters, education and human behavior for Time magazine, The Atlantic, Politico, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times and The Times of London. Her work helped Time magazine win two National Magazine Awards.

To discuss her writing, Amanda has appeared on ABC, NBC, CNN, FOX News and NPR. She has spoken at the Pentagon, the U.S. Senate, the State Department and the Department of Homeland Security, as well as conferences on leadership, public policy, preparedness and education.
