

FEMA Library

The FEMA Library is an online, searchable database of publicly available resources for downloading.

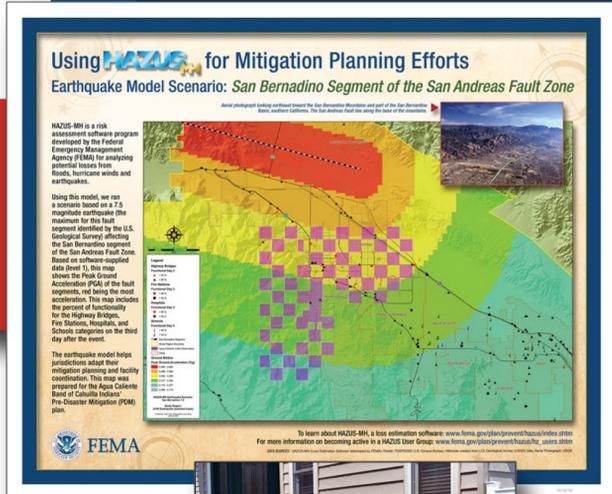

Search by the FEMA Publication Number or the title of the resource.

Narrow the search for resources by using keywords, subject categories, audience categories, or type of hazard.

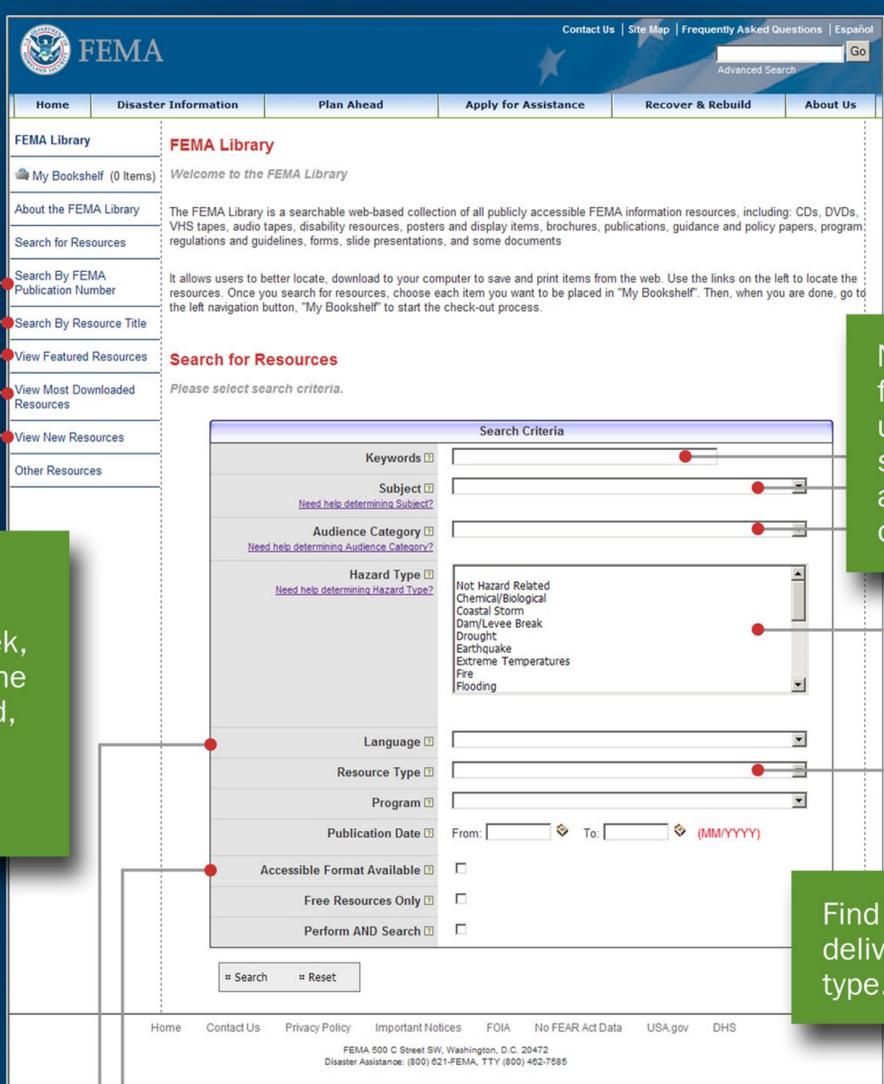

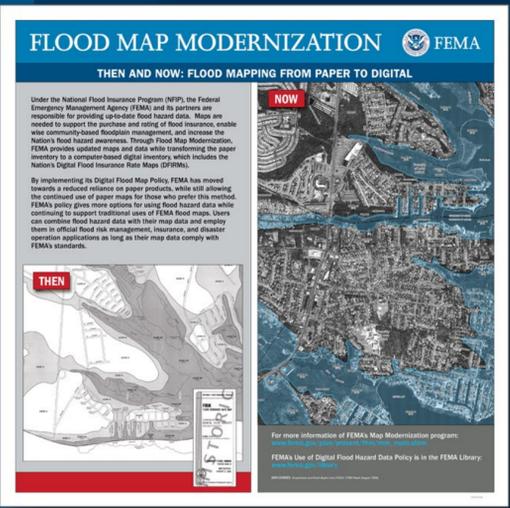

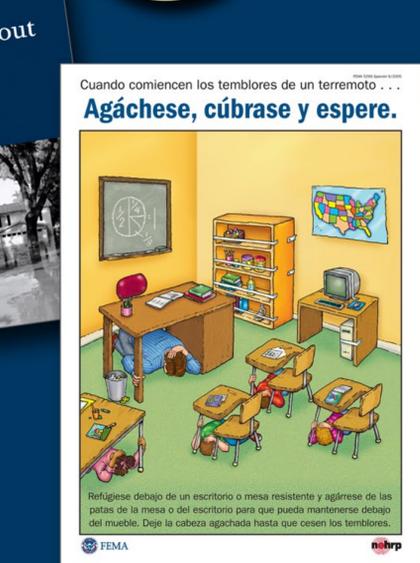

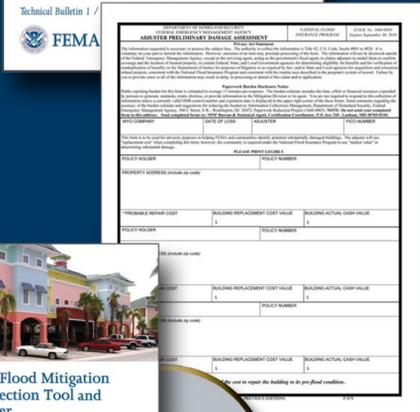

Discover which resources are featured this week, which titles are the most downloaded, and which new releases are available.

Find resources by delivery or format type.

Find resources written in other languages or for users with disabilities.
