

A Time to Remember, A Time to Prepare

Join the International Association of Emergency Managers (IAEM) and FEMA Region III for a one day event on April 30 entitled, “A Time to Remember, A Time to Prepare: A Whole Community Stakeholder Workshop.”

This workshop will focus on current topics of interest and is an excellent opportunity to hear updates from IAEM officials and other subject matter experts to develop collaborative efforts to face current and future challenges in preparedness. Topics will include an overview of lessons learned post Hurricane Sandy, public private partnerships, campus preparedness, legislative updates, funding , effective communications and more.

Registration is limited to 150 individuals. To register, visit <http://www.iaem.com/page.cfm?p=events/regional-meetings>.
