Disaster Assistance: A Guide to Recovery Programs

Foreword

The federal government helps states and localities to prepare for disasters by providing financial and technical assistance for emergency planning and training, conducting exercises of plans, and building and maintaining an emergency management infrastructure. In a catastrophic or major disaster incident, the National Response Framework – a national approach to domestic incident management – will be activated. This interagency plan describes the resources that federal agencies can mobilize to support initial emergency functions, and how they will integrate with state, local, private sector, and non-governmental resources. It outlines planning assumptions, policies, a concept of operations, and organizational structures.

A governor may request a presidential declaration of disaster in the event of a disaster incident in which state and local emergency resources are overwhelmed. The request must satisfy the provisions of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, as amended, which is the primary legislative authority for the federal government to assist state and local governments in carrying out their responsibilities for disaster response and recovery.

Disaster Assistance: A Guide to Recovery Programs is a resource for federal, state, local, and non-governmental officials. It contains brief descriptions and contact information for programs from government, non-government, and corporate sources that may be able to provide disaster recovery assistance to eligible applicants. While Disaster Assistance: A Guide to Recovery Programs provides profiles of many of those programs; it is by no means a complete or perfect compilation. Please view the document as a starting point for individual research. Some programs described in this guide are available only after a presidential declaration of disaster, but others are available without a declaration. Please see the individual program descriptions for details.

This guide presents an array of programs that may be of assistance during disaster recovery – depending upon the circumstances, community needs, and available resources. Please verify the applicability of a particular program with the responsible agency. The user should always directly consult the provider of a potential resource for program changes and updates. Resources in the Guide are identified for general informational purposes only, and compiled with publicly available information or with information provided by sources that are publicly obtainable.

About This Publication

Resources in the publication are identified for general informational purposes only, and compiled with publicly available information or with information provided by sources that are publicly obtainable. Please use program summaries in this publication only as a guide to potential sources of assistance. The user should always directly consult the provider of a potential resource for program changes and updates. Sections III to IV of this guide reference nongovernmental and corporate giving programs. The appearance of any non-Federal resource does not imply an endorsement by any agency or representative of the Federal government. The summaries are by no means comprehensive or complete. Additional resources may be readily identified through independent research.

Purpose
The purpose of this guide is to provide basic information about programs of assistance available to individuals, businesses, and public entities after a disaster incident. These programs help individuals cope with their losses, and affected businesses and public entities restore their structures and operations. The information is intended to serve as a starting point for disaster workers and local, state, and federal officials to locate sources of help as they seek more definitive information, such as eligibility criteria and application processes. Included are programs that make financial assistance available as well as those that provide technical assistance and/or goods and other services.

Background
The program summaries in this guide evolved from an initial compilation of programs obtained from the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, the compendium of financial and nonfinancial programs throughout the federal government that provide assistance or benefits to the American public. The relevant program summaries were reviewed and revised to reflect programs that are specifically intended to apply to disaster recovery and regular agency programs that, in special circumstances, may support disaster recovery.

Summaries of Federal programs include the notation “CFDA Number.” This refers to the program number found in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance includes a comprehensive list of federal, regional, and local office addresses and telephone numbers that are also a useful reference for obtaining program information. The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance can be obtained from the Internet and U.S. General Services Administration (GSA)’s free CFDA website at www.cfda.gov. However, if interested in purchasing the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance from the Government Printing Office, contact the Superintendent of Documents at 202-512-1800 or toll free at 866-512-1800, or reach GPO's online bookstore at: http://bookstore.gpo.gov.
This guide was developed as a supplement to the booklet, Disaster Assistance: A Guide to Recovery Programs [FEMA 229(4)], published by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) in September 2005. The booklet referenced federal agency funding programs only. Much of the material it contained has been captured and updated in this document. The publication may be available on the website: www.fema.gov/pdf/rebuild/ltrc/recoveryprograms229.pdf.

It is also available as a digital document on the Resource Guide CD. For further information on FEMA publications, please contact the FEMA Distribution Center / Post Office Box 430 / Buckeystown, MD 21717 / 800-480-2520.

Organization and Use of Sections I and II

The objective of this guide is to reference a full range of recovery assistance programs and services available.

Eligibility requirements may be more comprehensive or more restrictive than they appear to be in this guide. It is important, therefore, to obtain additional information about program eligibility from the program sources.

The summaries in Sections I (Disaster-Specific Recovery Programs) and Section II (Disaster-Applicable Recovery Programs) are based upon federal government programs. Each group of programs has a distinct purpose. The disaster-specific programs (I) exist for the express purpose of aiding survivors of a disaster incident, and the disaster-applicable programs (II) are regular agency programs that may be applied to disaster incident recovery under special circumstances. Section I program summaries include slightly more information than Section II programs, as reflected below. Inclusion of a program does not necessarily mean that assistance is available. Congress may authorize a program but may not appropriate funds for it in a given fiscal year. Current efforts of Congress and the administration to streamline government also may result in the elimination of some of the programs or consolidation into larger block grants. The Sections I and II program summaries are organized alphabetically by subject or title, whichever is more accurate and readily understood.

As a further aid, summaries typically reference the following information:

1. Identification of the federal agency or nongovernmental (foundation or corporate) organization that has primary responsibility for administration of the program.
2. The type of assistance available, including advisory and counseling services; direct payments; donations; education, technical information, and training; formula grants, project and other grants; loans; sale of goods or property; specialized services; and technical assistance.
3. Category of recipient of assistance, as follows: federal agencies, states, localities, nonprofit organizations (sometimes specified by category, such as universities or organizations that do the work of government), businesses, and individuals.
Assistance to individuals may include funds for temporary housing (for any person impacted by disaster), individual and family grants to meet disaster-related expenses, and loans to individuals for repair or replacement of real and personal property. Funds may flow directly from the federal government to the individual or from the federal government to the individual through a state or a subdivision of a state, or from a nonprofit organization to the individual.

Assistance to businesses (including farms and sole proprietorships) generally is made available when the ability to continue operations is terminated or impaired by a disaster. Such assistance may include loans or grants to replace livestock herds, restore damaged structures, or replace inventories.

Assistance to public entities (states, localities, etc.) comprises measures such as repair or replacement of non-federally supported thoroughfares and water control facilities (e.g., dikes, irrigation works, levees, and drainage systems) and clearance of debris necessary to protect the public interest. It also includes repair or replacement of federal buildings, state-supported schools, or public facilities in U.S. trust territories or on Native American lands. It includes loans to communities that have incurred substantial losses of tax and other revenue and the use of government-owned equipment, supplies, facilities, personnel, and other resources. Recipients of public assistance may include states, political subdivisions of states (counties or parishes), any type of organization under the aegis of a state agency, localities (municipalities, unincorporated towns, water control districts, etc.), U.S. trust territories or possessions, Indian tribes, universities, or other nonprofit organizations.
Obtaining a Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) Number: Guidance for Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Applicants

The Federal government’s Office of Management and Budget requires that all applicants for Federal grants and cooperative agreements – with the exception of individuals, other than sole proprietors – have a Data Universal Numbering System number (please reference policy at: [http://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/omb/grants/Data Universal Numbering System_num_guide.pdf](http://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/omb/grants/Data Universal Numbering System_num_guide.pdf)). The Federal government will use the Data Universal Numbering System number to better identify related organizations that are receiving funding under grants and cooperative agreements, and to provide consistent name and address data for electronic grant application systems. Many federal agencies now also require applicants to register annually in the Central Contractor Registry. This task can be completed online (www.ccr.gov) in approximately thirty minutes. Applicants should allow a minimum of five days for Central Contractor Registry applications to be processed.

Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) Number

The Data Universal Numbering System number is a unique nine-digit identification number provided by Dun & Bradstreet.

The Data Universal Numbering System number is site-specific. Therefore, each distinct physical location of an entity (such as branches, divisions, and headquarters) may be assigned a Data Universal Numbering System number. Organizations should try and keep Data Universal Numbering System numbers to a minimum. In many instances, a central Data Universal Numbering System number with a Data Universal Numbering System number for each major division/department/agency that applies for a grant may be sufficient.

In order to provide on-the-spot Data Universal Numbering System number assignment, the requestor should do this by telephone (see telephone number below).

Obtaining a Data Universal Numbering System Number

If there is a possibility you will be applying for future Federal grants or cooperative agreements: You should verify that you have a Data Universal Numbering System number or take the steps needed to obtain one as soon as possible. There is no need to wait until you are submitting a particular application.

If you already have a Data Universal Numbering System number: If you, as the entity applying for a Federal grant or cooperative agreement, previously obtained a Data Universal Numbering System number in connection with the Federal acquisition process or requested or had one assigned to you for another purpose, you should use that number on all of your applications. It is not necessary to request another Data Universal Numbering System number from Dun & Bradstreet. You may request Dun & Bradstreet to supply a family-tree report of the Data Universal Numbering System numbers associated with your organization. Organizations should work with Dun & Bradstreet to ensure the right information is on the report. Organizations should not establish new numbers, but use existing numbers and update/validate the information associated with the number.
If you are not sure if you have a Data Universal Numbering System number: Call Dun & Bradstreet using the toll-free number (1-866-705-5711) and indicate that you are a Federal grant applicant/prospective applicant. Dun & Bradstreet will tell you if you already have a number. If you do not have a Data Universal Numbering System number Dun & Bradstreet will ask you to provide the information listed below and will immediately assign you a number, free of charge.

If you know you do not have a Data Universal Numbering System number: Call Dun & Bradstreet using the toll-free number (1-866-705-5711) and indicate that you are a Federal grant applicant/prospective applicant. Dun & Bradstreet will ask you to provide the information listed below and will immediately assign you a number, free of charge.

Managing Your DATA UNIVERSAL NUMBERING SYSTEM Number

Dun & Bradstreet periodically contacts organizations with Data Universal Numbering System numbers to verify that their information is current. Organizations with multiple Data Universal Numbering System numbers may request a free family tree listing from Dun & Bradstreet to help determine what branches/divisions have numbers and whether the information is current. Please call the dedicated Data Universal Numbering System Number request line (1-866-705-5711) to request your family tree.

Dun & Bradstreet recommends that organizations with multiple Data Universal Numbering System numbers have a single point of contact for controlling Data Universal Numbering System number requests to ensure that the appropriate branches/divisions have Data Universal Numbering System numbers for Federal purposes.

As a result of obtaining a Data Universal Numbering System number, you have the option to be included on Dun & Bradstreet’s marketing list that is sold to other companies. If you do not want your name/organization included on this marketing list, request to be de-listed from Dun & Bradstreet’s marketing file when you are speaking with a Dun & Bradstreet representative during your Data Universal Numbering System number telephone application.

To Obtain Your DATA UNIVERSAL NUMBERING SYSTEM Number

Obtaining a Data Universal Numbering System number is absolutely FREE for all entities doing business with the Federal government. This includes grant and cooperative agreement applicants/prospective applicants and Federal contractors. Be certain that you identify yourself as a Federal grant applicant/prospective applicant.

Please call the dedicated toll-free Data Universal Numbering System Number request line for Federal grant and cooperative agreement applicants or prospective grant applicants at:

The number is staffed from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. (local time of the caller when calling from within the continental United States). Calls placed to the above number outside of those hours will receive a recorded message requesting the caller to call back during operating hours. The process to request a Data Universal Numbering System number takes about 5-10 minutes. A Data Universal Numbering System number will be assigned at the conclusion of the call. Be prepared to provide the following information:
• Legal Name
• Headquarters name and address for your organization
• Doing business as (DBA) or other name by which your organization is commonly known or recognized
• Physical Address, City, State, and Zip Code
• Mailing Address (if different than Headquarters and/or physical address)
• Telephone Number
• Contact Name and Title
• Number of Employees at your physical location.

Your institution can also register for a Data Universal Numbering System number via Dun & Bradstreet’s website at www.fedgov.dnb.com/webform. Please note that registration via the website may take up to thirty business days to complete. Applicants for Federal grants and cooperative agreements should plan accordingly.
Section I: Disaster-Specific Recovery Programs
Overview

Programs summarized in this section have been specifically authorized for use in assisting affected individuals, businesses, and/or public entities to recover from the consequences of a disaster incident. Benefits under these programs generally are triggered by a presidential declaration of a major disaster or emergency under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act. The Secretary of Agriculture and the administrator of the Small Business Administration may also declare disasters within the purview of their agencies and provide disaster assistance under their statutory authorities.

A major disaster is defined as any natural catastrophe or – regardless of cause – any fire, flood, or explosion that causes damage of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant assistance to supplement state, local, and disaster relief organization efforts to alleviate damage, loss, hardship, or suffering. A disaster declaration can only be issued via presidential determination.

An emergency is defined as any occasion or instance for which federal assistance is needed to supplement state and local efforts to save lives and protect property and public health and safety, or to lessen or avert the threat of a catastrophe. An emergency declaration can only be issued by the President.

A governor may request that the President declare a major disaster or emergency when available state and local resources are insufficient. The request must satisfy the provisions of the Stafford Act. Concurrent with a presidential declaration, the President designates the types of assistance to be made available under the Stafford Act. This may include Individual Assistance, Public Assistance, and/or Hazard Mitigation Assistance. Depending upon the situation, other federal disaster relief programs may be activated as well.

A discussion of the general procedures and process for requesting federal assistance and the type of assistance that may be available – with or without a presidential declaration – appears in the FEMA publication, A Guide to Federal Aid in Disasters (FEMA 262, June 1997). To order, contact the FEMA Distribution Center at Post Office Box 430 / Buckeystown, MD 21717 / 800-480-2520 or FEMA-Publications-Warehouse@dhs.gov.

Emergency Conservation Program

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Farm Service Agency (FSA)

RECIPIENTS: Businesses and individuals

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: USDA Farm Service Agency’s Emergency Conservation Program (ECP) provides emergency funding and technical assistance for farmers and ranchers to rehabilitate farmland damaged by natural disasters and for carrying out emergency water conservation measures in periods of severe drought. Funding for ECP is appropriated by Congress. For land to be eligible, the natural disaster must create new conservation problems that, if untreated, would:

- Impair or endanger the land
- Materially affect the land’s productive capacity
- Represent unusual damage which, except for wind erosion, is not the type likely to recur frequently in the same area
- Be so costly to repair that federal assistance is or will be required to return the land to productive agricultural use.

Conservation problems existing prior to the applicable disaster are ineligible for ECP assistance.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Direct payments for specified use
- Technical assistance may be provided by USDA’s Natural Resources Conservation Service

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: ECP program participants receive cost-share assistance of up to 75 percent of the cost to implement approved emergency conservation practices, as determined by county FSA committees. Individual or cumulative requests for cost-sharing of $50,000 or less per person, per disaster are approved at the county committee level. Cost-sharing from $50,001 to $100,000 is approved at the state committee level. Cost-sharing over $100,000 must be approved by FSA’s national office.

ELIGIBILITY: Any agricultural producer who, as owner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on a farm or ranch (including associated groups), bears a part of the cost of an approved conservation practice in a disaster area.

Highway Planning / Construction Emergency Relief Program

AGENCY: Department of Transportation (DOT) / Federal Highway Administration (FHWA)

RECIPIENTS: Federal agencies and states

ACTIVATING MECHANISM: Serious damage to federal-aid roads or roads on federal lands caused by a natural disaster or by catastrophic failure.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: To provide aid for the repair of federal-aid roads and roads on federal lands. Congress authorized in Title 23, United States Code, Section 125, a special program from the Highway Trust Fund for the repair or reconstruction of Federal-aid highways and roads on Federal lands which have suffered serious damage as a result of: 1) natural disasters or 2) catastrophic failures from an external cause. This program supplements the commitment of resources by states, their political subdivisions, or other federal agencies to help pay for unusually heavy expenses resulting from extraordinary conditions. The applicability of the ER program to a natural disaster is based on the extent and intensity of the disaster. Damage to highways must be severe, occur over a wide area, and result in unusually high expenses to the highway agency. Applicability of ER to a catastrophic failure (due to an external cause) is based on the criteria that the failure was not the result of an inherent flaw in the facility, but was sudden; caused a disastrous impact on transportation services, and resulted in unusually high expenses to the highway agency.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Special funding to states and federal agencies
- Technical assistance to states and federal agencies

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: Federal share is 100 percent for eligible emergency repairs done within 180 days of the disaster; otherwise, the federal share is based on the type of federal-aid highway that is being repaired. For interstate highways, the federal share is 90 percent; for all other federal-aid highways, the federal share is 80 percent. For roads on federal lands, the federal share is 100 percent for both emergency and permanent repairs.

ELIGIBILITY: State highway/transportation agency or federal agency.

APPLICATION: A notice of intent to request ER funds filed by the State Department of Transportation with the FHWA Division Office located in the state will initiate the ER application process.

Section II: Disaster-Applicable Recovery Programs
Overview

In addition to the disaster-specific programs summarized in Section I, federal agencies may use funds from regular, ongoing programs to support disaster recovery. Access to these programs depends on a number of factors, including whether Congress has appropriated funds for the program (authorization may exist for a program, but Congress generally must appropriate funds on a fiscal year basis), and agency willingness and ability to divert funds for disaster purposes. If funds are made available under these regular agency programs, duplication of benefits must be avoided. Federal agencies are prohibited by law from providing financial assistance to any person or entity impacted by a disaster incident (individual, business, or other entity) who receives financial assistance for the same purpose under any other source.
Abandoned Mine Land Reclamation (AMLR) Program

AGENCY: Department of the Interior (DOI) / Office of Surface Mining

RECIPIENTS: State governments and federally recognized tribal governments

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: To protect the public, health, safety, and general welfare, and restore land, water, and environmental resources affected by coal and non-coal mining practices that occurred prior to August 3, 1977. Grants support the operation of an approved State or Tribal Abandoned Mine Land (AML) reclamation program. Grants also support project administration and AML-related activities including: abating emergency mining-related dangers to public health and safety, restoring water supply facilities impacted by coal mining, setting aside funds in a trust account to fund future acid mine drainage treatment, and developing a self-sustaining state subsidence insurance program. Approved programs—which have completed coal mine reclamation in their state, or on lands within their jurisdiction—may use funds for other activities as authorized in SMCRA.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Formula Grants
- Project Grants

Funding ranges from $242,357 to $117,352,070.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: Grants are 100 percent federally funded. Grant funds are no-year funds made available from mandatory annual contributions from coal mining reclamation fees in the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund and from Treasury funds. The distribution formula is based on annual reclamation fee collections and historical coal production.

ELIGIBILITY: The program is restricted to states with (1) an approved coal mining regulatory program, (2) lands eligible for reclamation, and (3) active coal mining operations within their borders that are paying coal reclamation fees into the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund and to federally recognized Indian tribes with (1) eligible lands, and (2) active mining operations paying fees into the Fund. An eligible state or tribe may submit a state reclamation plan to the Office of Surface Mining for approval.

Certified Local Government Program

AGENCY: National Park Service

RECIPIENTS: Cities, Towns and Counties

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Certified Local Government Program is a preservation partnership between local, state and national governments focused on promoting historic preservation at the grass roots level. The program is jointly administered by the National Park Service (NPS) and the State Historic Preservation Offices (SHPOs) in each state, with each local community working through a certification process to become recognized as a Certified Local Government (CLG). CLGs then become an active partner in the Federal Historic Preservation Program and the opportunities it provides.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED: The key reason a community should be a CLG is the access certification provides to the expert technical advice of the State Offices as well as the NPS. Partnerships with the National Alliance of Preservation Commissions, Preserve America, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and the National Main Street Center are also networks that CLGs have an opportunity to tap into. Of course, access to Federal funding is another benefit, making certified communities able to access the portion of Federal funds set aside by each SHPO for just CLGs annually. Being a CLG also shows your community's commitment to keeping what is significant from the past for future generations. As a certified town, city, or county seeking other opportunities, it becomes easy to demonstrate a readiness to take on a preservation project and be successful.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS:

ELIGIBILITY: A prospective CLG community must address the following minimum goals to demonstrate to the State and NPS that they are committed to historic preservation.

- Establish a qualified historic preservation commission.
- Enforce appropriate State or local legislation for the designation and protection of historic properties. In most cases this is done in the form of a local ordinance.
- Maintain a system for the survey and inventory of local historic resources.
- Provide for public participation in the local historic preservation program, including participation in the National Register process.
- Follow any additional requirements as outline in the State's Procedures for Certification.
- Each state has Procedures for Certification that are approved by NPS, and often establishes additional requirements for becoming a CLG in that state. Contact your State CLG Coordinator to learn more about any additional requirements.

Civil War Battlefield Land Acquisition Grants

AGENCY: Department of the Interior (DOI) / National Park Service (NPS)

RECIPIENTS: State and local governments and nonprofit organizations

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: To assist states and local communities to acquire and preserve threatened Civil War battlefields. Grants are available for the fee simple acquisition of land, or for the acquisition of permanent, protective interests in land, at Civil War Battlefields listed in the Civil War Sites Advisory Commission’s (CWSAC) 1993 Report on the Nation’s Civil War Battlefields. Grantees must provide for the appropriate public access to and enjoyment of any lands or interests in lands acquired with assistance from this program, subject to necessary and reasonable measures on the part of the beneficiary to protect the historic features of the battlefield from damage or loss.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: A dollar-for-dollar nonfederal match is required for all projects receiving funding through this program.

ELIGIBILITY: Eligible applicants are state and local governments. Private nonprofit organizations seeking to acquire battlefield land with assistance from this program must apply in partnership with the state or local government agency that has jurisdiction over the proposed acquisition parcel. The government agency may then sub-grant the federal funds to the nonprofit organization. In any case, where a local government or a private nonprofit organization acquires land or an interest in land with assistance from this program, it must convey an acceptable perpetual protective easement on the land to the State Historic Preservation Office or other governmental agency acceptable to the National Park Service.

Community-Based Restoration Programs

AGENCY: Department of Commerce / National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)

RECIPIENTS: States, localities, educational institutions, and nonprofit organizations

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: To provide grants and cooperative agreements for habitat conservation activities including coastal and marine habitat restoration and protection. Projects are funded to carry out public policy pertaining to protection and restoration of the nation’s wetlands and other coastal habitats. Research and management includes determining the effects of habitat modifications and contaminants on populations of living marine resources; restoring depleted stocks that have been adversely impacted by habitat modifications, determining if artificial or restored habitat fulfills essential habitat needs of living marine resources, and quantifying contaminants and debris that pose a hazard to populations of these animals.

Funds can be used by recipients to support a wide variety of habitat restoration activities, coral reef conservation, construction, management, public education activities, and research for marine and estuarine habitats. Restoration includes, but is not limited to, activities that contribute to the return of degraded or altered marine, estuarine, coastal, and freshwater (diadromous fish) habitats to a close approximation of their function prior to disturbance. Habitat restoration activities that produce significant ecological habitat features to create buffers or “green infrastructure” that serve to protect coastal communities from sea level rise, coastal storms and flooding, or that provide adaptation to climate change are also included. Projects funded under this CFDA primarily support NOAA’s “Ecosystems” mission support goal of “Protect, Restore, and Manage Use of Coastal and Ocean Resources through Ecosystem-Based Management.”

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project grants

Funding range is $15,000 to $36,000,000 with the typical award being $35,000 to $200,000.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: Project costs are funded at up to 100 percent. Grantee matching contributions vary by specific funding opportunity. Under the Community-based Restoration Program guidelines, projects are encouraged to demonstrate a minimum nonfederal match of 50 percent of the total cost needed to complete the proposed project to be most competitive.

ELIGIBILITY: State and local governments, including their universities and colleges; US territorial agencies, federally and state recognized Indian tribal governments; private universities and colleges, private profit and nonprofit research and conservation organizations, and/or individuals. Applicants are required to satisfy all DOC/NOAA standards and regulations, including routine and special terms and conditions, for financial assistance programs application and conduct. OMB Circular #A-87 applies to this program.

APPLICATION: Contact the headquarters or regional office for application deadlines. Grants and cooperative agreements are approved on an annual basis, but may be continued beyond the first segment (subject to approved time frame and scope of work), satisfactory progress, and availability of funds.

Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP)

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RECIPIENTS: Individual producers, legal entities, corporations, and Indian tribes operating agricultural or private non-industrial private land

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: CSP is a voluntary program that encourages agricultural and forestry producers to address resource concerns by undertaking additional conservation activities, and improving and maintaining existing conservation systems.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: Not applicable to this program

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED: Through five-year contracts, NRCS will offer participants two potential types of payment. An annual payment will be made for installing new conservation activities and maintaining existing stewardship. A supplemental payment can also be made to a participant receiving annual payments, who also agrees to adopt a resource-conserving crop rotation. CSP payments to a person or legal entity may not exceed $40,000 in any year and $200,000 during any 5-year period. Each CSP contract will be limited to $200,000 over the term of the initial contract period.

The program provides equitable access to all producers – regardless of operation size, crops produced, or geographic location. Eligibility is limited to “private” agricultural land; as such, land that is owned by a Federal, State, or local unit of government – with the exception of agricultural land under the jurisdiction of an Indian Tribe – is ineligible, regardless of the status of the operator. Likewise, land enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Program, Wetlands Reserve Program, Grasslands Reserve Program, and Conservation Security Program is ineligible for CSP. Eligible lands include cropland, grassland, prairie land, improved pastureland, rangeland, non-industrial private forest lands, agricultural land under the jurisdiction of an Indian tribe, and other private agricultural land – including cropped woodland, marshes, and agricultural land used for the production of livestock – on which resource concerns related to agricultural production could be addressed.

APPLICATION: CSP is offered as a continuous sign-up, and applications are accepted year-round with periodic ranking cut-off dates announced during the year. Once applicant and land eligibility are determined, the NRCS field office will assist the producer with completing the CMT resource inventory. CMT will estimate the level of environmental benefit to be achieved by the applicant. CMT conservation performance scoring will enable NRCS to determine if the stewardship threshold requirement is met, rank applications relative to those of other applicants, and establish payments.

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RECIPIENTS: Individuals and/or groups of decision makers, Tribes, states, communities, nonprofit organizations, and businesses.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: NRCS and its partners deliver technical assistance through the voluntary Conservation Technical Assistance Program (CTA). CTA helps land users address opportunities, concerns, and problems related to the use of natural resources and to help land users make sound natural resource management decisions on private, Tribal, and other non-federal lands. The assistance may be in the form of resource assessment, conservation planning, practice design, resource monitoring, or follow-up of installed practices. Through its objectives and priorities, CTA aims to:

- Reduce soil loss from erosion
- Solve soil, water quality, water conservation, air quality, and agricultural waste management problems
- Reduce potential damage caused by excess water and sedimentation or drought
- Enhance the quality of fish and wildlife habitat
- Improve the long term sustainability of all lands – including cropland, forestland, grazing lands, coastal lands, and developed and/or developing lands and
- Assist others in facilitating changes in land use as needed for natural resource protection and sustainability.

Technical assistance is the help provided by NRCS, employees of other entities or agencies under the technical supervision of NRCS, to clients to address opportunities, concerns, and problems related to the use of natural resources. The CTA program does not include financial or cost-share assistance. Clients may develop conservation plans, which may serve as a springboard for those interested in participating in USDA financial assistance programs. CTA planning can also serve as a door to financial assistance and easement conservation programs provided by other federal, state, and local programs. CTA is available to any group or individual interested in conserving natural resources, and sustaining agricultural production in this country.

Cooperative Conservation Partnership Initiative

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RECIPIENTS: State and local units of government, Federally recognized Indian Tribes, producer associations, farmer cooperatives, institutions of higher education, and nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) with a history of working cooperatively with producers may serve as partners. Beneficiaries (producers) include owners and operators of agricultural and nonindustrial private forest lands in an approved project area.

After announcement, eligible producers located in an approved project area may submit an application for any of the following available programs, which may be approved for assistance:

- Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP)
- Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP)
- Wildlife Habitat Incentive Program (WHIP)

Under CCPI, the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) enters into multi-year agreements (partnerships) with eligible entities that want to enhance conservation outcomes on agricultural and nonindustrial private forest lands. One purpose of CCPI is to leverage resources of certain Federal government programs along with services and resources of non-Federal partners to implement natural resource conservation practices.

Only producers who are eligible for EQIP, WHIP, or CSP may receive financial assistance through these programs. Individual producers are not eligible to submit a partnership proposal.

APPLICATION: NRCS uses a Request for Proposal (RFP) process. Proposals submitted by eligible partners are evaluated and competitively ranked for consideration of the NRCS program to support the project. The RFP published to the Federal Register outlines the process and requirements partners must use to submit proposals and CCPI requirements. The RFP also provides details regarding which programs are offered and funding availability each fiscal year. Please reference the website for complete guidelines and restrictions.

Federal Crop Insurance Program

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Risk Management Agency (RMA)

RECIPIENTS: Businesses and individuals

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: To promote the national welfare by improving the economic stability of agriculture through a sound system of crop insurance and providing the means for the research and experience helpful in devising and establishing such insurance. Crop insurance provides comprehensive protection against weather related causes of loss and certain other unavoidable perils that may result in low yields, poor quality, delayed planting, replanting, and inability to plant. In addition, some plans of insurance also protect the insured against price declines. Benefits include cash flow protection, good loan collateral, enhanced marketing flexibility, stability for long-term business plans, and family security. The government shares in the premium costs. As of 2004, the Risk Management Agency (RMA) insured 370 commodities and more than 43,400 county-commodity plan combinations in primary production areas throughout the United States. Coverage levels of 50 to 85 percent are available for most individual plans of insurance, while group plans typically offer coverage levels of 65 to 90 percent. For some plans of insurance, at the time of purchase, the insured also selects the percentage (from 60 to 100 percent) of the RMA established expected market price on which premiums will be assessed and qualifying losses will be indemnified. A minimum coverage level of Catastrophic Risk Protection (CRT) is available for an administrative fee of $100 per crop, per county.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Direct payments of insurance claims

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: None

ELIGIBILITY: The program is open to all persons who hold an insurable interest in a crop and county for which a federal crop insurance policy is available.

RECIPIENTS: State and local governments, public/private nonprofit organizations or institutions, and for-profit organizations

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Gap Analysis Program (GAP) is an element of the U.S. Geological Survey. It is used to implement the Department of Interior’s goals of inventory, monitoring, research, and information transfer. GAP has three primary goals:

- To identify conservation gaps that help common species remain the same
- To provide conservation information to the public so that informed resource management decisions can be made
- To facilitate the application of GAP data and analysis to specific resource management activities.

To implement these goals, GAP carries out the following objectives:

- Map the land cover of the United States
- Map predicted distributions of vertebrate species for the U.S
- Map the location, ownership and stewardship of protected areas
- Document the representation of vertebrate species and land cover types in areas managed for the long-term maintenance of biodiversity
- Provide this information to the public and those entities charged with land use research, policy, planning, and management
- Build institutional cooperation in the application of this information to state and regional management activities.

GAP conducts national as well as regional and state projects, utilizing cooperative efforts among federal, state, and regional agencies, and private organizations.

Grassland Reserve Program (GRP)

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RECIPIENTS: Landowners, operators, or Tribes who have general control of the acreage. Units of government and non-governmental organizations can participate through cooperative agreements.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: A voluntary program to assist landowners and operators in restoring and protecting eligible grazing lands – including rangeland, pastureland, and certain other lands – through easements, rental contracts, restoration agreements, and cooperative agreements.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: For GRP acquisitions made through a Cooperative Agreement, each eligible entity is required to provide at least fifty percent of the purchase price of the conservation easement. Purchase price is defined as the appraised fair market value minus any landowner donation. The landowner donation is the reduction in value that the landowner will accept as payment for the sale of the conservation easement. Each eligible entity is required to fund its own administrative costs in acquiring easements – such as appraisals, surveys, title searches, and costs incurred in managing/enforcing the easements.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Direct payments for a specified use (fifty percent of actual installation cost)
- Technical assistance

GRP rental contracts and restoration agreements are limited to $50,000 per person / per year. County rental rates range from $7.50 to $21.00 per acre /per year.

ELIGIBILITY: Only landowners may submit applications for easements; landowners and others – including operators and tenants – who have general control of the acreage may submit applications for rental contracts. All participants are subject to the Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) provision. This limitation provides that individuals and entities who have an AGI exceeding $1 million (for the three tax years immediately preceding the year the contract is approved) are not eligible to receive program benefits, unless 66.6 percent (2/3) of the AGI is derived from farming, ranching, or forestry operations.

APPLICATION: Applications can be obtained through local USDA service centers or the website of the Natural Resources Conservation Service office and may be submitted at any time. USDA will establish criteria to evaluate and rank applications for easement and rental contract enrollment. Individual project selection will be made by State level USDA officials.

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RECIPIENTS: States, communities, Tribes, nonprofit organizations, businesses, individuals.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The National Cooperative Soil Survey (NCSS) is an effort of Federal and State agencies, universities, and professional societies to deliver science-based soil information. USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) provides access to the largest natural resource information system in the world. NRCS has soil maps and data available online for more than 95 percent of the nation’s counties. Web Soil Survey (http://websoilsurvey.nrcs.usda.gov) provides a single authoritative source of soil survey information and data. A soil survey is a detailed report on the soils of an area. The soil survey has maps with soil boundaries and photos, descriptions, and tables of soil properties and features. The purpose of the NCSS is to maintain up-to-date, published soil surveys (and soil survey data in other formats) of counties or other areas of comparable size for use by interested agencies, organizations, and individuals; and to assist in the use of this information to make land use and management decisions. The information for many regions is now available online.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

ELIGIBILITY: Unrestricted; all individuals and groups that have a need for soil surveys are eligible to receive these documents by contacting the local NRCS office or by using online sources, referenced below.

States may apply for all types of NEGs. State and local Workforce Investment Boards (WIBs) generally apply for NEGs on behalf of a: 1) business 2) group of businesses and/or 3) group of individuals.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: National Emergency Grants (NEGs) temporarily expand the service capacity of the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Dislocated Worker training and employment programs at the state and local levels by providing funding assistance in response to large, unexpected economic events which cause significant job losses – such as plant closures, mass layoffs, and natural disasters. NEGs generally provide resources to states and local workforce investment boards to quickly reemploy laid-off workers by offering training to increase occupational skills. Reemployment services typically include skills assessment, job search and placement assistance, labor market information, job readiness and entrepreneurial skills, and on-the-job training.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Project Grants

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: None

ELIGIBILITY: Eligible circumstances for funding include Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) declared disasters; plant closures and mass layoffs affecting 50 or more workers; and special assistance, including health insurance coverage assistance to trade impacted workers and other individuals eligible under the Trade Act as amended by the TAA Reform Act of 2002. In emergency situations, the applicant may submit a streamlined application. An emergency application must be submitted within 15 calendar days of the emergency, unless logistical barriers (e.g., damaged communication systems resulting from a disaster event) prevent submission within this timeframe.

- To monitor human, marine, and coastal environments to provide time series and data trend information for identification of significant changes in the quality and productivity of these environments, and to identify the causes of these changes.

The broad spectrum of research and monitoring undertaken through the ESP contributes to BOEMRE’s mission and long-term DOI goals focusing on environmentally sound development of our nation’s energy and mineral resources. Assistance can be used to conduct environmental research to satisfy the information needs associated with oil and gas, alternate energy, and marine mineral development on the outer continental shelf. The majority of funds are used to support research that will enhance understanding of long-term effects of oil and gas, marine minerals, and alternate energy development projects.

Partnership for Sustainable Communities

AGENCY: Housing & Urban Development (HUD) / Department of Transportation (DOT) / Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Sustainable communities are places that have a variety of housing and transportation choices, with destinations close to home. As a result, they tend to have lower transportation costs, reduce air pollution and storm water runoff, decrease infrastructure costs, preserve historic properties and sensitive lands, save people time in traffic, are more economically resilient and meet market demand for different types of housing at different price points. Rural, suburban, and urban communities can all use sustainable community strategies and techniques to invest in healthy, safe, and walkable neighborhoods. These strategies will look different in each place, depending on the community’s character, context, and needs. The partnership agencies periodically offer funding opportunities. When these grants are offered, they will be announced on www.sustainablecommunities.gov/ and on www.grants.gov. Funding is also available for rural communities with populations of less than 50,000. Initiatives include:

- HUD offers funding opportunities to help communities realize their own visions for building more livable, walkable, and environmentally sustainable regions
- DOT offers funding opportunities to support more livable, walkable communities
- EPA offers grants to support activities that improve the quality of development and protect human health and the environment.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Project Grants

Funding typically ranges from $100,000 to $3,000,000.

ELIGIBILITY: State and local governments – including U.S. territories, tribal governments, political subdivisions of state or local governments, and multi-state or multi-jurisdictional groupings.

DEADLINE: Please reference the website to access information regarding the Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA), the appropriate agency through which funding will be available, and the guidelines for application.

Plant Materials Program

AGENCY: Department of Agriculture (USDA) / Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RECIPIENTS: Cooperating State and Federal agencies and cooperators of conservation districts where structured evaluations are conducted, and commercial seed growers and nurserymen interested in the commercial production of selected plant materials.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Many of today’s environmental challenges can be addressed through the use of plants. Plants hold soil in place, protect stream banks and shores, filter pollutants, offer food for livestock, and cover for wildlife. They heal the land after wildfire and mining, floods, and drought. They beautify our surroundings. The mission of the Plant Materials Program has always been to find plant solutions to solve conservation problems. Plant Materials Centers (PMCs) around the Nation have developed over 600 conservation plant releases of grasses, legumes, forbs, shrubs, and trees. Finding these uniquely evolved plants to meet specific conservation needs has been-- and continues to be-- the focus of the Plant Materials Program. These plants literally provide protection for millions of acres across our Nation. No tool offers more versatility or is more cost effective for long-term environmental protection and improvement than plants. The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), through its network of 27 strategically located Plant Materials Centers, delivers needed plants and plant technology throughout the United States. The Program is dedicated to developing plants and plant technology to solve conservation problems.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: Not applicable

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Provision of specialized services

The Plant Materials Program provides application-oriented technology including technical publications, fact sheets, and releases of conservation plants, conservation plant identification, tools for conducting plant materials work and land restoration, and other plant information. The Plant Materials Program does NOT provide seed or plants to the general public.

ELIGIBILITY: Limited to the properties of conservation cooperators working in conjunction with soil conservation districts, State Agricultural Experiment Stations, State Crop Improvement Associations, and other Federal and State Agencies in all 50 states and territories. The general public is not eligible to participate in the program.

Smart Growth Implementation Assistance Program

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) / Office of Sustainable Communities

RECIPIENTS: State, local, regional, and tribal governments, and nonprofits that have partnered with a governmental entity.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: EPA’s Smart Growth Implementation Assistance program is an annual, competitive solicitation open to state, local, regional, and tribal governments – along with nonprofits that have partnered with a governmental entity – that want to incorporate smart growth techniques into their future development. Once selected, communities receive direct technical assistance from a team of national experts in one of two areas: 1) policy analysis, such as reviewing state and local codes, school siting guidelines, transportation policies, etc.; or 2) public participatory processes, such as visioning, design workshops, alternative analysis, build-out analysis, etc. The assistance is tailored to the community’s unique situation and priorities. EPA provides the assistance through a contractor team rather than a grant. Through a multiple-day site visit and a detailed final report, the multidisciplinary team provides information to help the community achieve its goal of encouraging growth that fosters economic progress and environmental protection.

EPA initiated the SGIA program in 2005 with three goals in mind:
- To support communities interested in implementing smart growth policies
- To create regional examples of smart growth that can catalyze similar projects in the area
- To identify common barriers and opportunities for smart growth development and create new tools that other communities can use.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Direct Technical Assistance ($75,000 value)

ELIGIBILITY: The applicant must be a tribal, state, local, or regional government; or an incorporated nonprofit organization domiciled in the United States that has a demonstrated partnership with a governmental agency. Wetlands Reserve Program

RECIPIENTS: Private landowners and Tribes

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Wetlands Reserve Program is a voluntary program offering landowners the opportunity to protect, restore, and enhance wetlands on their property. The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) provides technical and financial support to help landowners with their wetland restoration efforts. The NRCS goal is to achieve the greatest wetland functions and values – along with optimum wildlife habitat – on every acre enrolled in the program. This program offers landowners an opportunity to establish long-term conservation and wildlife practices and protection. Eligible landowners may offer farmed wetlands, prior converted wetlands, wetlands farmed under natural condition, former or degraded wetlands on lands that have been used or are currently being used for the production of food and fiber – including rangeland and forest production land, lands substantially altered by flooding, and certain riparian areas, along with certain adjacent areas. A deed restriction covering the land approved under easement must be recorded in the local land deeds office. Subject to the acceptance of an offer by the federal government, the landowner will receive financial and technical assistance to install necessary restoration practices on the land. Lump sum or annual payments of equal or unequal value (for a period up to 30 years) are made for permanent or 30-year easements. To promote customer choice and involvement in career decisions, participants use an "Individual Training Account (ITA)" to select an appropriate training program from an eligible training provider. The Act also authorizes the provision of supportive services (e.g., transportation and child care assistance) to enable an individual to participate in the program.

Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

AGENCY: Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES:

- Basic Research: The foundation believes that a carefully reasoned and systematic understanding of the forces of nature and society, when applied inventively and wisely, can lead to a better world for all. With its Basic Research program area, the foundation expands that understanding by funding original, high-quality research in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

- Science Education: The foundation is unique among foundations in its focus on science and technology. The foundation believes that the scholars and practitioners in scientific and technical fields are chief drivers of the nation’s prosperity. Grants in the Science Education program area promote access to the scientific enterprise, provide information about scientific and technical careers, and encourage innovation to the structure of scientific training.

- Public Understanding of Science: In this area, the foundation makes grants that foster a better public understanding of the increasingly scientific and technological environment in which we live. The program aims to convey some of the challenges and rewards of the scientific and technological enterprise and of the lives of the men and women who undertake it. Using books, television, radio, film, theater, and other media—grants in this program area promote a deeper, richer contact with all the ways science and technology affects our lives.

- Economic Performance and the Quality of Life: The foundation believes that a theory-based, empirically-tested understanding of the U.S. economy is essential to improving the American quality of life. The foundation funds grants for high-quality original research that promises to broaden that understanding or use it to improve American institutions.

- Select National Issues: The foundation recognizes that there are select opportunities outside of science, education, and economics in which it can create an important benefit to society. Its National Issues program area looks for unique opportunities where funds promise to advance a significant national interest, such as increasing America’s biosecurity and investigating how recent advances in information technology affect the spread of knowledge, and the structure of scientific endeavor.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Supports and energizes grassroots coalitions through its Local Transit Coalition Grant Program. Activities funded include both public education programs and advocacy efforts, and have proven to be extremely helpful in promoting transit in communities around the country. Such activities could include support for local or regional funding initiatives intended to help support public transportation in economically challenging times, activities supportive of national efforts to reauthorize federal surface transportation programs, and efforts to educate decision-makers about policies favorable to public transportation and to support public transportation services in the community. Grant recipients are also expected to be vocal advocates with their respective federal representatives pertaining to annual Congressional appropriations for transit.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The majority of our grants are now directed to professional development with an emphasis on facilitative, distributive leadership and to the intentional interruption of inequitable policies, practices, and cultural norms. Funding priorities include:

- National School Change supports a variety of efforts to empower students and teachers by promoting the practice of democracy in schools, encouraging student voice, advancing an ethic of environmental stewardship, and integrating academic course work with meaningful community service. In addition, we support math/science programs and projects that seek to strengthen the developmentally critical role of the arts.
- Student Voice seeks to honor authentic student expressions through programs that promote creative writing, playwriting, and journalism; and initiatives that encourage meaningful student participation in the governance of their schools.
- Service Learning grantees assure student participation in the design and implementation of all phases of a project and provide rich, meaningful opportunities for reflection throughout – with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions acquired by the students aligned with curricular goals and relevant state standards.
- Math and Science focuses on programs that emphasize engaging, hands-on learning opportunities. First time grants are geographically restricted to the greater New York City metropolitan area.
- Arts-in-Education grants most often support projects that are integrated with other curriculum and that include a professional development component for classroom teachers. First time grants are geographically restricted to the greater New York City metropolitan area.
- Endangered Species: We continue to make small grants for research and intervention efforts on behalf of endangered species, both in the United States and internationally.
- Collections Care and Conservation: This program provides modest support for conservation and preservation projects to archives, museums, libraries, botanical gardens, and historic sites; and has helped to strengthen these efforts nationwide through support of non-for-profit regional conservation centers, manuals, publications, and collections care training programs.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The CDC Foundation connects the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) with private-sector organizations and individuals to build public health programs that make our world healthier and safer. Since 1995, the CDC Foundation has provided $300 million to support CDC’s work, launched more than 500 programs around the world and built a network of individuals and organizations committed to supporting CDC and public health. Each CDC Foundation program involves a talented team of experts at CDC and at least one outside funding partner. Sometimes, a program begins with a CDC scientist who has a great idea and wants to collaborate with an outside partner to make it happen. At other times, organizations in the private sector recognize that they can better accomplish their own public health goals by working with CDC through the CDC Foundation.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants

ELIGIBILITY: Partnerships forged by the CDC Foundation include traditional philanthropic donor/grantee relationships; collaborative alliances between CDC and a single private sector organization; broad multi-partner initiatives that may include more than one funding stream; and research collaborations involving CDC expertise and laboratory capacity associated with a partner’s larger proposal and CDC’s public health agenda. Occasionally the CDC Foundation may issue a request for proposals (RFPs) to subgrant funds received for a specific project. These RFPs will seek:
  - Providers of products or services required for a specific CDC Foundation program with CDC
  - Eligible nonprofit or governmental organizations that wish to participate in a CDC Foundation program addressing a specific health issue.

DEADLINE: The CDC Foundation is not a traditional grant making, endowed foundation and does not accept or respond to unsolicited proposals. RFPs are posted on the website. Deadlines will vary, accordingly. Please reference the website for complete guidelines and restrictions.

Charles Lafitte Foundation

AGENCY: The Charles Lafitte Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The mission of the Charles Lafitte Foundation (CLF) is to provide for and support inventive and effective ways of helping people help themselves and others around them to lead healthy, satisfying, and enriched lives. To fulfill this mission, the foundation acts as grant maker, innovator, and volunteer for four main programs:

- Education: The foundation provides support for innovative programs aimed at resolving social service issues, assisting students with learning disabilities, providing technology and computer based education, creating access to education of the arts, supporting at-risk children from pre-school to college, and providing learning enhancement – including the development of leadership skills. The Education Program includes support for research and conferences, as well as support for programs that promote academic excellence in institutions of higher learning.

- Children's Advocacy: The foundation is committed to improving the "quality of life" of children by supporting programs which encourage children to reach their fullest potential. The best chance a child has to reach that goal is to be provided with sufficient education, health care, housing, and love. To that end, the foundation supports programs that deal with issues such as child abuse, foster housing, literacy, educational advancement, after-school programs, hunger projects, and the general well-being of children. The mission of the Children's Advocacy Program is to improve outcomes for children and youth of all ages and to maintain a vital, attractive community where children and families can thrive.

- Medical Research & Issues: The foundation supports innovative programs; research that promotes health, scientific, and educational activities; and disease prevention. The foundation supports efforts that help people live healthy and productive lives and assists specific groups with serious and neglected problems. Emphasis is given to cancer research and treatment, children's health, health education, promoting healthy life styles, and bettering the quality of life for patients.

- The Arts: As one of the primary outlets of human creativity, art is a vital resource in developing and maintaining healthy communities. As school budgets are often short on cultural opportunities, the foundation will favor educational programs that encourage students to release their creativity, inspire them to learn, and empower them with achievement.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The C.S. Fund and Warsh-Mott Legacy are private foundations which are linked by common issue interests and boards of directors. CSF and WML are dedicated to preserving biodiversity, defending democracy, preventing the commoditization of life, and protecting human and environmental health. CS Fund and Warsh/Mott Legacy are currently granting in the following categories, each with a specific emphasis:

- Economic Globalization: Grant-making in this category balances short term efforts that oppose the NAFTA/WTO/FTAA trade regimes with long term efforts to develop alternative economic models. We are especially concerned about the lack of democracy that permeates the current system. This program also supports efforts to establish law at the intersection of human rights and the environment.
- Food Sovereignty: Grant-making in this area is designed to promote seed saving, encourages soil building, and protects pollinating insects and animals. We favor initiatives that are farmer-led and incorporate elements of traditional agriculture.
- Civil Liberties: This category focuses on protecting the constitutionally guaranteed right to dissent and preserving an accountable and transparent government. On a more limited basis, we support efforts to curb undue government surveillance powers and defend the due process rights of all Americans.
- Emerging Technologies: We are developing a new program aimed at addressing the potential risks of nanotech, as well as its convergence with other technologies.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: The CVS Caremark Charitable Trust accepts applications from organizations in communities across the country where CVS Caremark has a presence.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The CVS Caremark Charitable Trust focuses primarily on supporting charitable organizations that are making a difference in the lives of children with disabilities. Resources are also allocated to help support organizations focused on providing healthcare to the uninsured. Funding is awarded for:

- Grants to support Children with Disabilities or programs targeting children under age 21 with disabilities that address any of the following:

  - Health and Rehabilitation Services – We believe that health and rehabilitation services are critical in ensuring that children with disabilities develop the skills needed to live as independently as possible at home, in school, and in the community. Our CVS Caremark Community Grants support programs that promote independence among children with disabilities, including physical and occupational therapies, speech and hearing therapies, assistive technology, and recreational therapies.

  - Enabling and Encouraging Physical Movement and Play – We believe that play is essential to healthy development (physical, cognitive, emotional and social) and offers a means of understanding the world. Therefore, we are devoted to the principle of free play. The unstructured, spontaneous, voluntary activity that is so engaging for children has long been recognized as the most beneficial form. Proposed programs may include either physical activities or play opportunities for children and should address the specific needs of the population served.

- Grants to support Health Care for the Uninsured and Underserved support programs that ensure that more uninsured people receive needed care, that the care received is of higher quality, and that the uninsured are served by providers who participate in accountable community health care programs. There is no age limit on proposed programs that create greater access to health care services.

- Grants to support Public Schools work to ensure that students are not left behind in school. Proposed programs must be fully inclusive where children with disabilities are full participants in an early childhood, adolescent, or teenage programs alongside their typically developing peers.

Dr. Robert C. and Veronica Atkins Foundation

AGENCY: Dr. Robert C. and Veronica Atkins Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The mission of the Dr. Robert C. and Veronica Atkins Foundation is to positively impact and elevate the role of nutrition in health and lifestyle through a proactive grant-making strategy that seeks to invest in the science of nutrition and the formulation of nutrition policy. Recognizing that we cannot do this by ourselves, the foundation will achieve its goals by finding partners in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors who will join us in collectively rethinking the role of nutrition in disease prevention and health management. Funding and program priorities include:

- Research: The foundation seeks to support studies that will help elucidate the impact and clinical responses that macronutrients and micronutrients have on metabolic, biochemical, physiologic, and genetic activity within the body. Although a broad spectrum of research questions will be considered, obesity and diabetes are primary concerns for the foundation.
- Education: The foundation is committed to supporting organizations that are interested in advancing nutrition policy in the U.S. It seeks to partner with individuals and parties from the public, private, and nonprofit sectors to explore avenues of change in the policy sector in an effective and constructive manner. The foundation’s interest is to explore effective tools and programs that will allow everyone in the country to achieve a healthy diet and lifestyle.
- Endowments: Finally (in rare instances), the foundation will consider endowment opportunities. Due to Dr. Atkins’ longstanding interest in the science of nutrition, and recognizing the need for attracting talented researchers into this field, the foundation has an interest in funding and supporting innovative programs within medical or educational institutions.

The foundation funds independent scientific research that examines the role of metabolism and nutrition in obesity, diabetes, cancer, heart disease, Alzheimer’s disease, and other serious health concerns.

eBay Foundation

AGENCY: eBay Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The foundation’s mission is to assist nonprofits in fundraising; and to improve the economic and social well-being of local communities. Combining innovative fund raising with modern technology, eBay has developed several programs to assist nonprofits and persons in need:

- GIVE Teams: Employees recommend projects based on deserving causes in their communities and bring to them a combination of funds and volunteers.
- eBay Giving Works & eBay for Charity: Sellers can donate a percentage of their item’s final sale price to a nonprofit organization certified for the program. Buyers can purchase the items identified by the distinctive blue-and-yellow ribbons, or add a minimum $1 donation at checkout to any eBay purchase paid through PayPal. Nonprofits can receive donations and sell their own goods for free to raise funds on eBay. And, through PayPal, all eBay members can make a direct cash donation at the nonprofit’s Donate Now page.
- MicroPlace: A simple investment $20 has the power to help someone (who is on the margins of society) become economically productive, and potentially to transform lives. It will fund part of a loan that will enable recipients to start businesses, support themselves and their families, and build self-confidence. Investors benefit as well, getting their money back – with interest – when the investment matures.
- PayPal Nonprofits: In 2008, more than 100,000 organizations used PayPal to raise over $850 million. In partnership with Blackbaud, PayPal is helping new and growing nonprofits reach their fundraising goals with a point-and-click website builder, BlackbaudNow, with secure donation processing and the ability to send emails and record donors’ giving histories. In late 2008—when PayPal and eBay teamed up to offer eBay customers the ability to donate a dollar at checkout—$1 million dollars was donated to a variety of nonprofits in the first three months.

eBay Foundation also joins eBay in coordinated disaster response efforts, in the wake of natural disasters. Its businesses enable global fundraising from its customers, and the foundation provides financial assistance to provide relief for people impacted by devastating events.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants
- Volunteerism

ELIGIBILITY: Nonprofits should contact the foundation to obtain certification requirements.

Edward Lowe Foundation

AGENCY: The Edward Lowe Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The foundation actively embraces and encourages entrepreneurship as the source and strategy for economic growth, community development, and economically independent individuals. The foundation embraces the concept of "economic gardening," a unique and proven economic development strategy based on the fundamental concept that entrepreneurs drive economies. Economic gardening helps drive the creation and growth of local businesses by providing a supportive and enriched environment where these businesses not only grow, but richly thrive. The foundation supports entrepreneurship by focusing on second-stage entrepreneurs, and the belief that they are vital to the United States economy. A second-stage business is defined by the foundation as:

- Privately held
- Past the startup stage and focused on growth
- Facing issues of growth rather than survival
- Generating between $750,000 and $50 million in annual revenue or has that range of working capital in place from investors or grants
- Employing from 10 to 99 full-time equivalent employees, including the owner.

To find out if your organization is a good match for the Edward Lowe Foundation, ask yourself the following questions. The more "yes" answers that are generated, the more likely we will be able to enhance or support your work.

- Does your organization support or assist entrepreneurs at the local, regional or national level in the United States?
- Does your organization facilitate interaction among entrepreneurs through peer-to-peer events or activities?
- Does your organization include second-stage business owners, CEOs or presidents as your audience?
- Is your organization university- or college-based with a strong commitment to outreach programs?
- Is your group an independent organization concerned with regional economic development?

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Unlike grant-making foundations, the Edward Lowe Foundation seldom awards grants to individuals or organizations. It is an operating foundation whose mission emphasizes support services for groups of second-stage business owners, and for other entrepreneurial support organizations rather than grants.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The FishAmerica Foundation is the fisheries’ conservation and research foundation of the American Sport Fishing Association, dedicated to keeping our fish and waters healthy to improve sport fishing success. There are several special opportunities available for the Gulf area. Contact the foundation for additional information about these programs.

Ford Foundation

AGENCY: Ford Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The foundation works in three program areas, each led by a vice-president. Together, these programs build on the foundation’s mission and values, and respond to a new generation of challenges in a changing world. They encompass our nine issue area, and the corresponding initiatives through which we make our grants. Program areas are as follows:

- Economic Opportunity and Assets: We focus on helping people build individual and shared assets, including natural resources that sustain livelihoods in rural communities, marketable skills that enable people to improve their earning power, and pioneering programs that make it possible for low-income families to save, and to access opportunities in broader metropolitan economies.

- Democracy, Rights, and Justice: We support efforts to build more democratic and accountable governments by strengthening the rule of law, giving people a voice in the institutions that affect their lives, and promoting human rights. All of this work is guided by a commitment to human dignity.

- Education, Creativity, and Free Expression: We support transformative education and scholarship programs, public interest media, religious expression, arts spaces, and reproductive health and rights. Central to our work is the belief that knowledge, creativity, and understanding enrich people’s lives and advance societies.

In addition to grant making through our main program areas, we occasionally undertake major initiatives that reflect elements of all of our programs. These Special Initiatives usually require significant funding over a period of years in an effort to make a groundbreaking impact in a particular area.

Good 360

AGENCY: Good 360

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Good 360 provides a solution to companies looking for efficient ways to donate large quantities of new products to qualified charities. Industry donors provide a wide range of items including technology, education, health, personal care, apparel and footwear, products for home improvement, appliances, automotive, toys, sporting, and office products. Good 360 accepts donations of only new products. The only exception is newly refurbished technology. Current partners include: Bed Bath & Beyond; Hewlett Packard; The Home Depot; Mattel; and Williams-Sonoma.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- In-Kind Donations

There are three ways Good360 can get donated products to your organization:

- Browse our catalog and place an order: It's just like online shopping, but the product is FREE – you only pay a service fee to help cover shipping and handling. Browse our current warehouse inventory of available product donations at any time, place an order, and we do the rest. Within two days, your product is shipped to your door. Some of our donors may even cover the service fee for you, and our social networking tools (coming soon) will let you activate your own donor network to raise the money online.

- Pick up donations from a local retail store for a whole year: Work with us to partner with a retail store or business right in your neighborhood. During the year, your nonprofit can pick up donations directly from the store, cutting out the shipping costs. Choose to partner with one store for a period of time, up to one year. (An annual fee applies for each retail partnership.)

- Receive one-time local donations: A great way to “test drive” a partnership agreement! Companies approach us all the time with one-time donation opportunities that are available for direct pick-up in specific locations. You can find these with our real-time mapping feature on www.good360.org or we regularly notify member nonprofits in the surrounding area about these first-come, first-served opportunities.

ELIGIBILITY: Organizations must register and be approved. Reference the website to access the eligibility process.

DEADLINE: Requests for donations are accepted from registered “member” organizations throughout the year. Please reference the website for complete guidelines and restrictions.

Heinz Family Foundation

AGENCY: Heinz Family Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Heinz Family Philanthropies sponsor a myriad of programs on issues ranging from aging to the environment, and from the arts to women's economic opportunities. Here, we focus on several of our larger, independent programs, plus WISR – the Women's Institute for a Secure Retirement – in which the Philanthropies play a key supporting role. Other initiatives include:

- The Environment: The Philanthropies sponsor initiatives that bring together policy makers with leaders from academia, the business community, and the environmental movement.
- Human Health and Aging: We believe that realistic solutions to difficult health challenges must be rooted in the marketplace. They must address complex economic realities. But we are equally attuned to the intensely human dimensions of our projects and initiatives. Through partnerships with several state governments, we are working to provide comprehensive prescription drug benefits to the elderly and affordable health coverage for the uninsured.
- Women’s Economic Opportunities: The Heinz Family Philanthropies sponsor initiatives designed to educate and empower women to save and prepare for the future. It also examines the larger issue of a retirement and pension system that remains unresponsive (and, in many cases, simply ill-suited) to address their particular needs.
- Cultural and Societal Enrichment: Democracy is precious; the opportunities of free citizenship are powerful, and both require vigorous and constant vigilance.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The foundation’s overall goal is to improve the health of older adults by creating a more skilled workforce and a better designed health care system.

Foundation grants currently support 108 programs that span the spectrum of academic and clinical training. These programs increase the nation’s capacity and ability to serve older adults by engaging doctors, nurses, and social workers at all the stages of their formation and professional growth.

In order to maximize the foundation's impact on the health and the well-being of the nation's elders, grants are made in two priority areas:

- Academic Geriatrics and Training: The foundation supports efforts in selected academic medical centers and other health settings to strengthen the geriatric training of America's physicians, nurses, and social workers.
- Integrating and Improving Services: The foundation supports a limited number of sustainable efforts to improve and integrate the system of services needed by elders and their effectiveness. The emphasis is on nationally replicable models.

Within each of these areas there are multiple grant programs. Refer to the website for specifics.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants
- Research

ELIGIBILITY: The foundation normally makes grants to state colleges/universities and U.S. based organizations which have tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and are not private foundations within the meaning of section 107(c)(1) of the Code. The foundation does not make grants to individuals.

DEADLINE: There are no deadlines. Due to its narrow funding focus, the foundation makes grants primarily by invitation. After review of the foundation’s program areas and guidelines, potential applicants are welcome to submit a brief Letter of Inquiry (1-2 pages) which summarizes the purpose and activities of the grant, the qualifications of the applicant and institution, and an estimated cost and time frame for the project. Johnson & Johnson Family of Companies Contribution Fund

AGENCY: Johnson & Johnson Family of Companies Contribution Fund

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Johnson & Johnson and its many operating companies support community-based programs that improve health and well-being. Our community partners show us where our giving can help the most. We listen to them and we learn from them so that the programs we support make a meaningful difference in people’s lives. Together with our partners, we are helping mothers and infants survive childbirth. We are supporting doctors, nurses, and local leaders as they work to provide the best medical care to their people. And we are educating communities on how to reduce their risk of infection from preventable diseases. The desire to make people healthier and safer is at the heart of our company’s giving. Johnson & Johnson supports a wide range of programs focused on three key strategies:

- Saving and improving the lives of women and children
- Building the skills of people who serve community health needs, primarily through education
- Preventing diseases and reducing stigma and disability in underserved communities where Johnson & Johnson has a high potential for impact.

The Johnson & Johnson Family of Companies has responded consistently to major natural and man-made disasters around the world. In the immediate aftermath of any major disaster, Johnson & Johnson works through its key international relief partners and local affiliates to assess and rapidly respond – in many cases within hours – to critical health needs with an array of consumer, pharmaceutical, and medical products. Through partners such as: MAP (Medical Assistance Programs) International, Johnson & Johnson routinely deploys disaster relief modules in key global “hot spots” prone to earthquakes, hurricanes, and other catastrophes. These modules include: wound care, infection prevention, analgesic, and orthopedic products. Additionally, employees at local Johnson & Johnson companies volunteer to help in communities most affected. Johnson & Johnson also contributes funds to not-for-profits to provide food and water, and health care to those affected by social and civil unrest. AmeriCares, Direct Relief International, International Aid, MAP International, and Salvation Mission Warehouse have been partnering with the company for many years. Johnson & Johnson is moving toward the future of disaster relief – response through preparation. Beyond pre-placing disaster relief modules, Johnson & Johnson has partnered with charitable and medical organizations to ensure that those who serve people at high-risk are better prepared for disasters, resulting in fewer injuries and deaths.

MetLife Social Investment Program

AGENCY: MetLife, Inc.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: The Social Investment Program gives special consideration to investments in communities where MetLife has a major presence, and to organizations that are regional or national in scope.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Through the use of debt and equity investments, MetLife's Social Investment Program supports community development ventures that do not meet the customary investment criteria of private and institutional investors. Established in 1984, the Program has made commitments of over $1 billion to underwrite projects in affordable housing, commercial revitalization, land preservation, health care centers, economic development, arts, and education. The following program areas are targeted:

- Community Revitalization: Projects that build or stabilize communities, such as: new or renovated housing for low- and moderate-income people, revitalize deteriorated commercial districts, or provide service enriched facilities for groups with special needs, such as: the homeless and mentally ill.
- Economic Development: Programs that stimulate economic growth in distressed areas, develop or expand businesses in low income areas, or promote training and job opportunities for individuals at an economic disadvantage.
- Health: Health-related services for underserved areas or populations, with an emphasis on preventive care.

The Social Investment Program provides financing to a wide range of projects and organizations. Investments are made with community development financial institutions (CDFIs), which then re-lend these funds to support community development projects. MetLife also makes mortgage loans, purchases bonds backed by community development loans to provide liquidity to local lenders, and makes a variety of tax credit investments with a focus on Low Income Housing Tax Credit transactions.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Loans

Usually structured as loans, social investments offer favorable rates for projects which address significant social needs. Amounts, rates, and terms are considered on a case-by-case basis. However, investments of $3-5 million with terms under ten years are preferred.

ELIGIBILITY: Investments are considered primarily for nonprofit organizations, and their subsidiaries. In addition, investments with a clearly demonstrated social purpose in for-profit entities are considered on a case-by-case basis. In general, the program is seeking organizations with a record of achievement, and the potential for growth that apply innovative approaches to emerging or intractable social problems.

DEADLINE: MetLife welcomes requests for social investments within the guidelines and program areas set forth. Inquiries can be made by email describing the organization and its proposed project—including its social purpose and economic feasibility. Requests will be accepted and reviewed throughout the year. GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Mockingbird Foundation, Inc. was incorporated in 1997 by fans of the band Phish to raise funds for music education. Our funding guidelines define music education for children broadly and somewhat unconventionally. For example, we are interested in efforts outside of schools – including hospitals, shelters, and foster homes. We are also interested in supporting unconventional forms of instruction, and instruction in unconventional forms. And we are not focused on traditional performance skills, but are also interested in composition, vocalization, and improvisation. The board has historically been more interested in programs that engage students directly with music, rather than in funding musical performances for students who would only observe others experiencing music.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

Grants typically range from $100 to $5,000.

ELIGIBILITY: Public schools and U.S. based, nonprofit, charitable organizations with federal tax exemption as described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Throughout the year, the NEA Foundation awards close to 200 grants to support educators' efforts to close the achievement gaps, develop creative learning opportunities for students, and enhance their own professional development. There are two primary grant categories open to public education professionals:

- Student Achievement Grants: The NEA Foundation provides grants to improve the academic achievement of students in U.S. public school, and public higher education institutions in any subject area(s). The proposed work should engage students in critical thinking and problem solving that deepen their knowledge of standards-based subject matter. The work should also improve students’ habits of inquiry, self-directed learning, and critical reflection. Proposals for work resulting in low-income and minority student success with honors, advanced placement, or other challenging curricula are particularly encouraged. The grant amount is $5,000.

- Learning and Leadership Grants: These grants support public school teachers, public education support professionals, and/or faculty and staff in public institutions of higher education for one of the following two purposes: Grants to individuals fund participation in high-quality professional development experiences, such as summer institutes or action research; or Grants to groups fund collegial study, including study groups, action research, lesson study, or mentoring experiences for faculty or staff new to an assignment. The grant amount is $2,000 for individuals and $5,000 for groups engaged in collegial study. All $5,000 group grant applicants must include partner information.

The NEA Foundation – Nickelodeon Big Help Grants are available in the form of Student Achievement grants to K-8 public school educators. National Fish and Wildlife Foundation

AGENCY: National Fish and Wildlife Foundation (NFWF)

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The National Fish and Wildlife Foundation supports hundreds of projects across the country – in grasslands, estuaries, mountain meadows, coral reefs, high desert, and coastal lake plain – to protect and restore our nation’s lands and waters. NFWF provides funding on a competitive basis to projects that sustain, restore, and enhance our nation’s fish, wildlife, and plants and their habitats. Foundation grants address challenges facing key endangered, threatened, or declining species that are indicators for overall ecosystem health. These grants target birds, freshwater fish, wildlife and habitat, and marine and coastal ecosystems. Success in restoring these at-risk populations will demonstrate measurable progress in protecting crucial landscapes and watersheds. The foundation also targets specific conservation needs in restricted geographic areas through partnerships with federal agencies, corporations and others.

Another important component of the foundation’s approach to conservation investment is the Impact-Directed Environmental Account (IDEA) program. The IDEA program receives, manages, and disburses funds that originate from court orders, settlements of legal cases, regulatory permits, licenses, and restoration and mitigation plans. Through the IDEA program, the foundation acts as a neutral third-party fiduciary to manage funds for the benefit of government and private-sector stakeholders. The foundation works collaboratively with these partners to invest and grow designated monies, while at the same time helping to ensure that the funds are applied to the most effective conservation and restoration projects.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

SECTOR(S):
- Agriculture & Environment
AGENCY: National Forest Foundation (NFF)

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The foundation provides grants for forest protection and preservation for our nation’s forests and capacity building for future sustainability. Current initiatives include:

- On the Ground: The National Forest Foundation (NFF) provides grants to nonprofit organizations for the implementation of projects that directly benefit National Forest System lands. The NFF funds important stewardship work through three distinct award programs:
  - Matching Awards Program provides challenge grants for organizations to implement a broad range of action-oriented, on-the-ground conservation, restoration and citizen-based monitoring projects that benefit National Forests and Grasslands. Current priorities center on recreation, wildlife habitat enhancement, watershed health, and community forestry. A 1:1 cash match is required.
  - Wilderness Stewardship Challenge provides challenge grants for organizations to implement projects that directly support specific wilderness stewardship goals, helping to advance the Forest Service 10-Year Wilderness Stewardship Challenge. Matching requirements vary by U.S. Forest Service region.
  - Ski Conservation Fund is a unique program that pairs contributions from guests at ski areas and lodges nationwide with NFF award funds to support National Forest stewardship. The program provides challenge grants to nonprofit organizations for the implementation of action-oriented, on-the-ground conservation and restoration projects that benefit the same National Forest from which they originate. Current priorities center on recreation, wildlife habitat enhancement, watershed health, and community forestry. A 50 percent cash or in-kind match is required.

- Capacity Building Programs: Through work over the past seven years, we have increasingly appreciated the importance and effectiveness of a “full package” approach to support community-based conservation (funding, technical assistance, mentoring, capacity-building workshops, and facilitation of peer learning opportunities to enable sharing of stories and best practices). The National Forest Foundation supports the field of collaboration to meet the needs of collaborative efforts at various stages of growth and capacity, from start-up to sustainable organizations. We seek to nurture groups along their path with grants, technical support and resources, and access to peers in the field to enhance the groups’ knowledge and skills.

The foundation also supports the networks that link local, immediate concerns to larger issues of social justice, racial equality, economic development, and political power.
- The New Majority Fund: Supports expanding the electorate by engaging the least enfranchised; forging alliances across race, class, and gender lines; designing policy agendas that will re-direct public resources to support human needs, sustain the environment, and enrich democratic culture; link local activism to political power by creating leadership streams for public office and participatory government practice; grow in scope to influence the broader political climate; and achieve national impact by organizing across states and sectors.
- The Phoenix Fund for Workers & Communities: Seeks to organize the unorganized; expand peer-to-peer networks; create strategic alliances; launch pro-active policy campaigns; build leadership streams; demonstrate that immigrant voting power can be decisive in many places where new Americans hold a potential balance of power.

AGENCY: Patagonia Environmental Grants

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Patagonia funds only environmental work. The company is most interested in making grants to organizations that identify and work on the root causes of problems and that approach issues with a commitment to long-term change. The company supports small, grassroots activist organizations with provocative direct-action agendas, working on multi-pronged campaigns to preserve and protect the environment. The company helps local groups working to protect local habitat. The company looks for innovative groups that produce measurable results, and likes to support efforts that force the government to abide by its own laws. An applicant’s efforts should be quantifiable – with specific goals, objectives, and action plans – and should include measures for evaluating success. Because it is a privately held company, Patagonia has the freedom to fund groups off the beaten track, and that’s where small grants are most effective.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Grants
- Direct Corporate Giving
- In-Kind Donations
- Sponsorships

Grants typically range from $3,000 to $8,000.

ELIGIBILITY: U.S. based, nonprofit organizations with federal tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or organizations with a comparable fiscal sponsor.

DEADLINES: April 30 or August 31 if applying to corporate headquarters. Applications are accepted year-round at retail stores. Initiate application process with online eligibility quiz. Qualified applicants may then proceed to the grant application form. Please reference the website for complete guidelines and restrictions.

Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Inc.

AGENCY: Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Inc. (RBF)

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Rockefeller Brothers Fund advances social change that contributes to a more just, sustainable, and peaceful world. Grant making is organized around three themes: Democratic Practice, Sustainable Development, and Peace and Security; and into three pivotal places: New York City, Southern China, and Western Balkans. Grant making in the three themes is not tied to the three pivotal places and is national/international:

- Democratic Practice: This program has two parts – strengthening democracy in the United States and strengthening democratic practice in global governance.
- Sustainable Development: This program pursues development strategies at three levels – global, national, and local.
- Peace and Security: This program focuses on two factors – (1) the content and style of U.S. global engagement in the face of new perils and opportunities; and (2) the strength and quality of relationships between Muslim and Western societies.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants
- General / Operating Support
- Technical Assistance
- Research

ELIGIBILITY: To qualify for a grant from the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, a prospective grantee in the United States must be either a tax-exempt organization, or an organization seeking support for a project that would qualify as educational or charitable. The RBF is unable to provide support to individuals.

DEADLINE: The Fund accepts applications on a rolling basis. While the Fund does not require applicants to complete a formal application, applicants are strongly encouraged to complete the online Letter of Inquiry (LOI) form to initiate the application process. The online LOI asks applicants to provide the information that the Fund requires to determine whether a proposed project is compatible with the fund’s funding priorities. GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES:

- Citizen Participation and Government Accountability: Grants in this program area support the efforts of nonpartisan organizations to help citizens exercise the right to vote, advocate for structural improvement to systems of government, and otherwise increase opportunities to participate in public policy formation.
- Economic Justice for Women: The program seeks to provide women with equitable employment opportunities and to improve their work lives.
- The Environment: This program emphasizes public education on the risk of global warming and implementation of sound solutions, conservation of natural resources, protection of health as affected by the environment, meaningful implementation and enforcement of the nation's environmental laws, and public participation in national environmental policy debates.
- Institutional Responsiveness: This program’s purpose is to help provide organizations with the means to affect the policies and actions of public and private institutions.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Project Grants
- Technical Assistance

Funding typically ranges from $25,000 to $30,000. Grants are normally made to the same organization for no more than two years at a time and – except in extraordinary cases – are not given for more than three or four consecutive years.

ELIGIBILITY: The Family Fund supports tax-exempt organizations engaged in activities of national significance. Thus, the Fund does not ordinarily consider projects which pertain to a single community, except in the rare instance where a project is unique, strategically placed to advance a national issue, or is likely to serve as a national model. Because the Fund has limited resources, it is unable to assist most applicants. Grants are rarely made to organizations which traditionally enjoy popular support – such as universities, museums, hospitals, or endowed institutions. The Family Fund does not make grants for academic or scholarly research, or for social or human service programs.

DEADLINE: Letters of Inquiry (LOI) may be sent at any time. Applicants should submit an LOI of no more than two pages summarizing the goals of the project, the strategy or plan for achieving the goals, and the amount of funding requested. Sparkplug Foundation

AGENCY: Sparkplug Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Funds start-up organizations and innovative new projects in music, education, and community organizing. Sparkplug gives preference to projects run on small budgets, projects of smallish organizations, and projects that are less likely to receive corporate, institutional, or government funding. Along the same lines, the foundation doesn’t fund university-based projects, schools, or organizations with budgets larger than $1 million.

- Music: Sparkplug aims to support the development of music by helping to launch new voices and ideas. Generally, this means we fund emerging professional musicians or music-development programs. The funding is intended to help them gain a foothold that makes their work sustainable.
- Education: Sparkplug aims to support projects that deal with "the whole student" and with learning as a community activity. In the past, this has included literacy projects that bring parents and kids together to learn, projects that use a neighborhood as a classroom, and projects that help teachers share ideas about creative, relevant curricula, etc. We're especially interested in supporting critical and investigative thinking, and projects that address class disparities in education.
- Community Organizing: Sparkplug aims to support communities to address institutional injustices, and to build a just society.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants
- Seed Money

Funding typically ranges from $1,500 to $10,000.

ELIGIBILITY: Grants are available to 501(c)(3) organizations, projects with 501(c)(3) sponsoring organizations, and individuals working on new, nonprofit projects.

DEADLINE: Our grant-making has been temporarily suspended as we undergo some much-needed reorganization. Please reference the website for new guidelines and funding cycles.

Tides Foundation

AGENCY: Tides Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Since 1976, the Tides Foundation has worked with donors to strengthen community-based organizations and the progressive movement through innovative grant making. We define "progressive" as creating a positive impact on people's lives in ways that honor and promote human rights, justice, and a healthy, sustainable environment. We have awarded more than 300 million dollars to nonprofits working for social change in this country and abroad. Most grants are made on the recommendation of one of our individual, family, or institutional donors who are interested in specific strategies furthering social change and environmental sustainability. Tides Foundation is a public charity offering individuals and institutions a vehicle for their philanthropy. It partners with individual and institutional donors through donor advised funds. Most grants are in the areas of health, human rights, community development, civic participation, environment, women's rights, and the arts. More recently, Tides has established collective giving programs to provide assistance to the Gulf Coast and other regions in crisis. These include:

- Relief / Reconstruction Fund: Through this fund, the Tides community supports victims of natural and civil disasters across the globe through grants to effective grassroots and advocacy organizations working for short-term relief, as well as long-term economic and structural change.
- The ECO Fund: The ECO grant making program will support organizations whose work focuses on the intersection of environmental protection, economic opportunity, social and racial justice, and democracy at all levels from local to international. In its first three years of grant making, the ECO Fund will support the entrance of new voices and constituencies into the national conversation about climate change, and a renewable energy economy.

ELIGIBILITY: U.S. based, nonprofit organizations with federal tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the international equivalent.

Rather, we partner with individual and institutional donors through donor advised funds. Our fund advisors direct their own grant making, and most do not accept unsolicited proposals. Unitarian Universalist Funding Program

AGENCY: Unitarian Universalist Funding Program

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Unitarian Universalist Funding Program has four areas of funding – three are related to expansion of their own beliefs and one is non-sectarian programming for a Just Society. Priority is given to active, specific campaigns to create change in the economic, social, and political structures that affect our lives. The program welcomes projects that are less likely to receive conventional funding because of the innovative or challenging nature of the work or the economic and social status of the constituency.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants ($15,000 maximum)

Most grants are between $6,000 and $8,000. Challenge or matching grants are acceptable. Grants are given for one year. Second-year funding is possible after submitting a new proposal and a final (or interim) report. Third-year funding for the same project is unusual.

ELIGIBILITY: Grants are made to non-Unitarian Universalist groups in the U.S. and Canada that: use community organizing to bring about systemic change leading to a more just society; mobilize those who have been disenfranchised and excluded from resources, power, and the right to self-determination; and have an active, focused campaign to create systemic change.

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Given the premise that “golf is a good and powerful teacher” for individuals (especially children), the concept of the Links Across America program is to build short courses – three, six, or nine hole – that will provide affordable access to golf across the industry. To bring about these venues and make these feeder short courses a reality; the foundation would partner with communities, park districts, YMCA’s, developers, an existing course (that has the land), hospital, forest preserve district or school district that can donate the land and operate the facility. In addition, a team of company partners from the golf course construction and golf facility industry would be established, who will – whenever possible – contribute profit, goods, or services to create the short courses at a significantly lower cost. In addition to a financial contribution, the Wadsworth Foundation would work with the ownership group to secure funding partners that are interested in becoming a title sponsor for the Links Across America course, or be the major donor and have it named after their company or family. The goal of the Wadsworth Golf Charities Foundation is to develop two short courses per year.

Wallace Foundation

AGENCY: The Wallace Foundation

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Giving nationally

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Wallace Foundation is a national philanthropy that seeks to improve education and enrichment for disadvantaged children. The foundation has an unusual approach: funding projects to test innovative ideas for solving important social problems, conducting research to find out what works and what does not work and to fill key knowledge gaps – and then communicating the results to help others. To achieve this, the foundation currently focuses exclusively on five initiatives:

- School Leadership: Strengthening the leadership of principals and other key figures to improve student achievement.
- After School: Helping cities improve access to high-quality after-school programs through coordinating the work of government agencies, private funders, nonprofits, and other groups.
- Summer / Extended Learning Time: Supporting school district and other efforts to expand learning time during summer, and the school day or year.
- Arts Education: Expanding arts learning opportunities for children and teens in school and beyond.
- Audience Development for the Arts: Supporting arts organizations to develop and test ideas for reaching new audiences so that many more people might enjoy the benefits of the arts.

In each of these areas, our approach is to fund selected organizations to test promising new ideas, to conduct independent research about their efforts and related matters, and to share what we learn. The idea is to benefit our grantees as well as many organizations that are interested in pursuing similar changes but may never receive our direct funding. Other areas of continuing interest include:

- Libraries
- Adult Literacy
- Museum Audience Development
- Urban Parks
- Advancing Philanthropy
- School Counseling
- Teacher Recruitment.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Project Grants

ELIGIBILITY: U.S. based, nonprofit, charitable organizations with federal tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

DEADLINE: In most cases, the foundation identifies and evaluates prospective grantees through the issuance of Requests for Proposals (RFPs) or other careful screening processes. Each RFP has its own deadline and will be posted online. Although unsolicited proposals are rarely funded, Letters of Request from potential new applicants are encouraged and may be submitted at any time. Applicants should submit their inquiries by email to grantrequest@wallacefoundation.org – briefly describing the project, the organization, the estimated total for the project, and the portion requiring funding. When disasters strike, they can have a tremendous impact on a community. Fast, reliable access to vital supplies can make all the difference in areas that are facing overwhelming damage and destruction. Abelard Foundation East

AGENCY: The Abelard Foundation East

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: East of the Mississippi River

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Successful applications to Abelard Foundation East satisfy criteria in three areas:

- Strategy: Fundamental to the grantees of the Abelard Foundation East is the strategy of community organizing as they work toward the goal of a more democratic, just, and equitable society. While organizations may engage in other complementary strategies, such as: advocacy, electoral participation, research, etc., the strategies are employed as a complement to the core focus on organizing. Part of an organizing strategy is the development of local leadership and the empowerment of their constituents. We look for strategies that reflect the connection between local work and broader policy issues and the efforts to address them at the state, regional, or national levels.

- Issues: Abelard Foundation East is committed to supporting local progressive social change activities that expand and protect civil liberties and civil/human rights, and promote and strengthen community involvement in – and control over – the decisions that affect their lives. We do not focus on any issues in particular; rather our grantees are involved in a broad range of issues, which involve the question of civil and human rights.

- Constituencies: The constituents of Abelard East’s grantees are poor, and low-income people seeking to affirm their civil or human rights. These include – among others – the disenfranchised, immigrants, workers, people of color, the disabled, etc.

Connecticut Corporate Wetlands Restoration Partnership

AGENCY: Connecticut Corporate Wetlands Restoration Partnership

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Connecticut

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Connecticut Corporate Wetlands Restoration Partnership (CT CWRP) is a private-public initiative that brings together corporations, state and federal regulatory agencies, academia, conservation groups, community groups, towns, cities and more to restore degraded wetlands and other aquatic habitat. The CT CWRP, established in 2000, is one of a developing national network of state CWRP chapters that facilitate such projects at both coastal and inland locations.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED: The key to CT CWRP’s success is that donations of the agency help unlock federal funds for local projects. Without CT CWRP's contributions of private capital and in-kind services, large amounts of federal money would be unavailable for these worthy projects. Though CT CWRP's contributions are modest in value, they are essential to obtaining matching federal funds for Connecticut's wetlands restoration projects. Since our inception, the CT CWRP has helped open the door to nearly $3,000,000 in federal funds for Connecticut wetland restoration projects. Nationally, on average, every $1 of corporate contribution can bring up to $3 in federal matching monies.

ELIGIBILITY: CT CWRP has established a project application form that highlights those factors that the CT CWRP takes into consideration in selecting eligible projects. Applicants can conduct their own pre-screening by reviewing their project, and its ability to meet the requirements outlined in the application package.

- Middlesex County
- New London County
- Part of Hartford County

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: Eastern Connecticut Resource Conservation and Development champions partnerships and initiatives that sustain our natural and agricultural resources while strengthening our economy.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:
- Agricultural Viability: Recognizing that protecting and preserving farmland is only part of the battle, this area focuses on the additional issue of maintaining the competitiveness of farming as a business and a way of life against other competing pressures. This approach specifically addresses the land management element of agricultural conversion to other land uses.
- Livable Communities: The work of the Council in this area will include the element of land management, specifically farmland protection, including an annual bicycle ride to raise funds and awareness for agricultural protection. It will also focus on community development, from the specific aims of improving transportation options, food security, recreation opportunity, and coordination across municipal and regional boundaries on issues of improving community quality and sustainability.
- Environmental Review Team: The Council’s continued support and guidance of this program most directly addresses the national program guideline elements. The teams, assembled from experts in the fields of wetlands, storm water management, fisheries, wildlife habitat, planning, soil conservation, water quality and others, provide guidance to municipalities to make better land use and development decisions. These teams are capable of providing expertise on virtually all of the elements in the national guidelines. In Connecticut, this service is particularly useful in the more rural communities where town staff often lack the staff, expertise, and budget to perform the type of in-depth and broad analysis the ERT performs for no charge.
- Greenways: Given the fractured nature of Connecticut’s municipalities, the Council decided to forge inter-municipal and inter-regional partnerships focusing on the development and preservation of green corridors, particularly along waterways. This will address the elements of land conservation, water management from the issue of water quality, community development from the issue of recreational opportunities, and land management from the issue of protecting wildlife habitats.

- Children’s Education: We are committed to supporting and improving education for youth in grades K-12, especially children in underserved areas or facing economic disadvantages.
- Financial Education: We believe that awareness and understanding of financial matters are the stepping stones to financial empowerment and a more secure future. Financial empowerment speaks to the day-to-day realities of many individuals in communities where we live and work – people who desperately need help gaining the knowledge and skills to build financial security and personal success. The ING Foundation is especially interested in programming that empowers individuals to take control of their financial futures through education, financial literacy, and financial planning, with special attention to the needs of young people and minorities.
- Physical Education: According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, childhood obesity has more than doubled in children and tripled in adolescents in the past 30 years. In 2010, more than one third of children and adolescents were overweight or obese. Because of the near and long-term effects this has on a child’s ability to thrive, ING U.S. believes this is not acceptable. MassMutual Charitable Contributions Program

The present priorities include the following:

- Education: Academic Achievement and Career Pathways Grades 6-8 — recognizing the criticality of the middle school years to future academic success – we support programs that drive academic achievement in alignment with career pathways/preparedness in financial services at the middle school level. Grades 9-12 – programs that promote achievement through increased academic rigor, access to support programs and building awareness of careers in financial services and the steps students need to take to have the 21st Century skills required to attain those careers.
- Community Vitality: We support organizations and programs that help attract and retain people in the Springfield and Enfield communities by making them a more enjoyable place to live and work. Community Vitality activities enrich the vibrancy of our communities, particularly in the arts and cultural sector through community-wide events featuring arts & culture.

Melville Charitable Trust

AGENCY: Melville Charitable Trust

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: Connecticut

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The particular effort of the Trust at this time is to seek out and support approaches that aim to prevent and end homelessness and enable homeless people to take self-supporting and productive roles in society. The Trust focuses its funding on housing-centered solutions, including affordable and supportive housing, as well housing advocacy and policy development. Ultimately, through its investments, the Trust is setting out to change public thinking about the ways to consider and end homelessness. Its conscious strategy has been to move policy, decision making and the structure of government and philanthropy away from emergency, palliative responses that serve only to perpetuate homelessness and toward proven, scalable and cost effective alternatives that will permanently end homelessness as we know it today.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED: The Melville Trust’s primary geographic focus is on the state of Connecticut. The Trust does not fund local programs in other states. Proposals that are national in scope and impact and relevant to the goals of the Trust may also be considered.

The Trust is pledged to use its giving to leverage funds from other private or public sources in order to multiply the resources available to end homelessness and to promote collaboration between the many players with a stake in solving this devastating problem. The Trust has been fortunate to work collaboratively with several departments of state government in Connecticut on programs and policies which directly affect the homeless population. In so doing, the Trust has established important partnerships with the public sector that it hopes will promote more targeted and comprehensive application of resources.

The Trust believes that housing and supportive service programs that do not take into account the actual needs and desires of the affected population are unlikely to be significantly useful in the longer term, and so it seeks to fund projects that are willing and able to incorporate in their decision-making structures people who are or have been homeless.

We realize that many community organizations which have provided leadership in addressing homelessness are underfunded and often lack sufficient resources to affect the problem. As a result, the Trust applies a portion of its resources to build organizational capacity through grants and technical assistance.

The Trust is committed to support efforts that identify the significant public policy issues involved in addressing homelessness and to promote greater public dialogue and understanding regarding effective strategies to end homelessness.

ELIGIBILITY: No application will be considered from an organization unless it has been determined to be tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and “not a private foundation” under section 509(a) of the Code.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: In 1967, responding to the need for affordable housing during Stamford's transformational downtown urban renewal program, the Council of Churches and Synagogues sponsored the creation of New Neighborhoods, Inc. as an independent, nonprofit 501c(3). NNI's mission is to develop and manage low and moderate income housing in Fairfield County. It also promotes neighborhood and community revitalization and educates the community about affordable housing. NNI's focus is on increasing the number of units of affordable ownership and rental housing options for the "working poor" and preserving affordability by acquiring and rehabilitating existing rental and absentee owner units. NNI pursues a proactive bricks and mortar approach to addressing the critical need for affordable housing in Stamford for men and women, families and the elderly least able to afford market rate housing and a decent place to live.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED: New Neighbors, Inc. is an independent nonprofit developer and manager of affordable housing. We are committed to improving the quality of life in our communities by building new homes, redeveloping and rehabilitating existing homes, and managing rental properties that provide a sense of home and a springboard to self-sufficiency for low and moderate income families, the elderly, and individuals unable to afford market rate housing in Fairfield County.

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The SI Financial Group Foundation, Inc. was established in 2005 by SI Financial Group, Inc., the parent company of the Savings Institute Bank & Trust Co. in Willimantic, CT. It is the mission of the Foundation to provide funding to support charitable causes within the Bank’s market areas and its neighboring communities. These causes are selected based on several criteria, including their ability to enhance the quality of life for the constituencies they serve. Education is an area of strong interest and consequently, the Foundation, when possible, embraces opportunities to support scholarships and local education. The Foundation also pays particularly close attention to funding opportunities that assist with community development and housing scholarships. - Educational projects that expand learning beyond the classroom and increase literacy
- Cultural and artistic enrichment programs that build audiences for the arts, especially among underserved populations

Section V: Community Foundations of Connecticut
Community Foundations Defined

Community Foundations are tax-exempt public charities organized and operated as a permanent collection of endowed funds for the long-term benefit of a defined geographic area. They are designated “public charities”, rather than “private foundations” by the IRS because they raise a significant portion of their resources from a broad cross-section of the public each year. Donors to community foundations are from diverse backgrounds with a common commitment to their communities' well-being. Each community foundation has its own character, but they all share common traits:

- A mission to enrich the quality of life in a defined geographic area
- Service to three primary constituencies: donors—as a partner for giving, and a resource for information about local needs
- Charitable organizations—as a source of grants and technical assistance, and as a guardian of nonprofit endowments
- The community at large—as a force committed to helping their communities thrive over the long term
- A focus on building permanent endowment with as few restrictions as possible
- An independent local volunteer governing body that knows about and generally represents the community
- Accountability to the public and an openness to its broad participation.

Of the more than seven-hundred community foundations in the country, nineteen are located in Connecticut. Some cover geographic regions with multiple communities, while others support a single community.

Community Foundations offer:

- Personalized service by helping individuals, families, businesses, and nonprofit agencies achieve their charitable and financial goals by providing tools and resources that make giving easy, flexible, and effective.
- Local expertise by developing an in-depth understanding of the community's challenges, and the groups and individuals addressing them.
- Community leadership by playing a key role in addressing community needs, now and in the future.

RECIPIENTS: Government and Private Facilities

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The DEEP encourages local units of government and private facilities to participate in this program by submitting grant requests for transient facilities to the DEEP's Boating Division. Applicants will be notified if their project was not selected at the State level to go to the Federal level. States are generally notified by January of each year of grant awards. DEEP will in turn notify remaining applicants of the status. Awarded federal funds can be used to reimburse up to seventy-five of the approved project costs. The remaining "matching" funds must come from the grant recipient.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Grants

Tier I: An annual maximum of $100,000 is available to each applying state under the Tier I portion of the BIG Program. However, the Connecticut DEEP is making $90,000 available for these projects; ten thousand dollars goes to administrative costs. Tier I is designed for smaller projects that add transient boating infrastructure to the area and to compete at the state level. Projects will be selected at a minimum funding level of $30,000 and a maximum of $90,000. Selected projects must still be authorized by USFWS.

Tier II: The remainder of the BIG Program annual funding (2% of the fund money, but not less than $8 million nationally, less whatever is awarded under Tier I) is typically awarded to larger projects under Tier II. Tier II projects that qualify at the state level are then competitively judged at the national level. Top scoring projects are awarded an eligible for funding status by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service.

Of this $3.2 billion, Connecticut entities are eligible to receive EECBG ARRA funding totaling up to $24.5 million. Of this $24.5 million received by Connecticut entities, $14.9 million in funding will be direct grants to specific larger municipalities and Indian tribes, and the remaining $9.6 million in funding will be directed to the State of Connecticut in part for distribution to municipalities not eligible to receive direct grants. The Connecticut Office of Policy and Management (OPM) is the state agency responsible for overseeing and managing the allocation of this $9.6 million in EECBG ARRA funding.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

Larger municipalities and Indian tribes in Connecticut that meet specific requirements are eligible to receive direct formula grants of EECBG ARRA funding from the DOE totaling $14.9 million.

The federal EECBG Grant Award to the State of Connecticut requires that not less than sixty percent of the funds be provided to municipalities not eligible for funding directly from DOE. Connecticut’s plan is to award a grant to each of the one hundred forty-two municipalities not covered by the federal grant program using a formulaic approach. Connecticut municipalities were invited to partner to apply for competitive sub-grants to implement energy projects of a regional benefit. As required under the guidelines of the Federal American Reinvestment and Recovery Act Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grant (ARRA EECBG), towns will be directed to use funding under the Supplemental Regional Bonus Pool Program to reduce fossil fuel emissions in a manner that is environmentally sustainable and, to the maximum extent practicable, maximize benefits for local and regional communities; reduce the total energy use of the eligible entities; and improve energy efficiency in the building sector, the transportation sector and other appropriate sectors.

CT Office of Brownfield Remediation Special Contaminated Property Remediation and Insurance Fund

AGENCY: State of Connecticut / Office of Brownfield Remediation / Special Contaminated Property Remediation and Insurance Fund

RECIPIENTS: Municipalities and property owners

PURPOSE / FUNDING PRIORITIES: The Special Contaminated Property Remediation and Insurance Fund (SCPRIF) is established in Section 22a-133u, as amended, of the Connecticut General Statutes. The Department of Economic and Community Development (DECD) administers the SCPRIF Fund in cooperation with the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP). The primary goal of the program is to provide financial assistance to investigate the environmental conditions of a site, remediate the site, and ultimately encourage property redevelopment that is beneficial to the community.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED:

- Loans

Assistance is provided through low-interest loans that have a term of five years. The recipient of SCPRIF loan funds will pay interest only during the term of the loan, and will repay the principal balance upon a) sale or lease of the property b) DEEP approval of the RAP or c) completion of site remediation. Due to cost remediation, if an assessment concludes that redevelopment of the site is not feasible, loans made under the program may be forgiven under certain conditions. Demolition, pre-demolition and remediation activities however are not eligible for forgiveness.

The purpose of the program is to encourage public and private partnerships to jointly investigate, remediate and redevelop underutilized commercial and industrial properties that remain vacant as a result of site contamination issues. The eventual remediation of any hazards and the reuse of the subject property is the ultimate goal of the program. Proposals will be reviewed for community and environmental impact, as well as economic feasibility. The reuse of the property induced by the project activities should represent a tangible improvement for the local community.

COST-SHARING REQUIREMENTS: Please refer to website for program guidelines.

ELIGIBILITY: Any person, corporation, municipality or business is eligible to apply for SCPRIF funds. Typically the applicant should either be the current owner of the site, the prospective owner or developer of the site, or the municipality in which the site is located.

Formed in 1965, CHEFA currently has in excess of $7.6 billion in bonds outstanding. Hospitals, institutions of higher education, independent schools, childcare providers, cultural institutions, and human service providers have benefited from this financing to expand their physical plant and equipment, and increase services to their clients.

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED: CHEFA offers a choice of programs and services to assist qualified nonprofit organizations, finance tax-exempt borrowing in the capital markets for construction and capital projects, and/or refinance existing debt. Our staff actively facilitates the borrowing process among the many parties involved in a bond transaction, and stands ready to help you, however we are able.

Our New Business team can provide the most help to a borrower when the project is in the early concept stages. Our staff will review the goals of the organization, its financing needs, and financial position in order to assist you in selecting the appropriate solution to your needs. We will work with you to analyze available financing products and provide information throughout the process, to the successful completion of a transaction that meets your specific needs.

NAME: Appalachian Trail Conservancy

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS: National

INFORMATION: The Appalachian Trail Conservancy’s conservation work is focused on the protection and stewardship of land surrounding the Appalachian Trail (A.T.). This land base, spanning the Appalachian highland region from Georgia to Maine, connects significant state and federal lands and functions as an important flyway and migratory corridor. Running primarily along the ridgelines, Trail lands also protect headwater streams for major east coast watersheds. This protected area is one of the most significant corridors, or greenways, in the eastern United States.

Our conservation work is focused on identifying high priority tracts for permanent protection, working collaboratively with numerous conservation partners. We advocate funding land protection and for best management practices to effectively steward these lands in perpetuity. The ATC also plays an important role as land managers, assisting with the natural resource management of corridor lands to ensure that the integrity of protected A.T. lands is upheld for future generations to experience and enjoy. We strive to base management decisions on sound science and we work cooperatively with partners to develop our conservation approach.

INFORMATION: Our mission is to save land for future generations. From day one, we have also sought to balance environmental and economic goals for a win-win. That’s reflected in the types of land we save, the collaborations we build, and our willingness to take strategic risks. We have consistently shown that effective land conservation makes good economic sense. In addition to saving land directly, we act swiftly to accelerate and sustain conservation. Our team helps communities strategically plan for development, provides loans to small green businesses, and works with companies to compensate for environmental impacts, among other efforts. With our skills and financial resources, we make land conservation a viable choice. We want to be sure your favorite places stay that way.

NAME:  Great Meadows Conservation Trust

GEOGRAPHIC FOCUS:  Glastonbury, Rocky Hill and Wethersfield

INFORMATION:  The Great Meadows Conservation Trust was incorporated in 1968 by concerned citizens of Wethersfield, Rocky Hill and Glastonbury as a non-profit tax-exempt land trust to protect and preserve the Great Meadows. We wish to save the floodplain’s vital agricultural, scenic, archeological and wetland resources, and are committed to work with like-minded groups and landowners. We are organized to acquire land and negotiate conservation easements. We interact with state and local governments about decisions affecting the meadows, believing that the intrinsic value of the land must be high on the public agenda.
