

Super Typhoon Yutu Relief & Recovery Update #3 Relief Supply Distribution Sites Open for Residents; Sea and Airport Open for Movement with Limitations

Release Date: October 27, 2018

The CNMI Government, FEMA and the Red Cross will be distributing food and water throughout Saipan at five distribution sites on Sunday, October 28, 2018 at 11:00 AM. The sites will be operated in a drive-thru fashion. To ensure enough supplies are well-distributed to residents, one care package will be allotted per vehicle.

Points of Distribution are:

- Kagman Fire Station
- San Roque Fire Station
- Koblerville Fire Station
- American Memorial Park
- Ada Gymnasium

Seaport & Airport Movement

As of 1PM, Saturday, the US Coast Guard Captain of the Port reopened the Seaport back to Condition WHISKEY. Movement in and out of the Port is now allowed.

Because of limited equipment, resources, capacity and damages, the Saipan International Airport will be operating during Daylight Hours only.

As a reminder, there will be NO in-bound passengers unless they are returning residents or relief effort personnel.

Tourism
