

Get Home Repair Advice October 6 - 19 in Aguadilla, Carolina, Ponce and San Juan

Release Date: October 3, 2019

GUAYNABO, Puerto Rico – Home Depot and Kmart have teamed with FEMA to provide residents of Puerto Rico with free information and tips on how to make homes safer and stronger from earthquakes and tsunamis.

FEMA specialists will offer home improvement tips and share proven methods to prevent or reduce damage from a disaster. Specialists will also suggest techniques to build hazard-resistant homes and answer questions. Most of the information and free publications provided are aimed at do-it-yourself work and general contractors.

All assistance and information are available in English and Spanish. People who are deaf or hard of hearing may ask a FEMA specialist for an interpreter and the agency will arrange to provide one.

Residents can learn ways to protect themselves and their family and neighbors by visiting with FEMA advisors from Oct. 6 to Oct. 19 at the following locations:
