

All Mobile Registration Intake Centers Close by Dec. 9, Help is Still Available

---

Release Date: December 8, 2020

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – All FEMA Mobile Registration Intake Centers that served wildfire survivors and helped them recover from their losses will close by Dec. 9.

However, help remains available for all those affected by the fires.

The centers are temporary sites to support survivors of California's two current federally declared disasters with disaster information.

Napa County and Sonoma County MRICs are open for their final day Wednesday, Dec. 9. They are closing earlier than previously announced due to the state's regional stay at home order related to COVID-19. The Fresno County MRIC closed Tuesday, Dec. 8.

Many of the services available at the intake centers remain available on the FEMA Helpline, at DisasterAssistance.gov or by downloading the FEMA app to a smartphone or tablet. The helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY 800-462-7585) operates 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. PST daily. Those who use a relay service such as a videophone, Innocaption or CapTel should provide FEMA with the specific number assigned to that service.

You can use the helpline to:

- Register with FEMA.
- Provide a change of address, telephone and bank account numbers and insurance information.
- Receive information about FEMA home inspections.
- Get other questions answered about federal disaster assistance.
- Ask questions about a letter from FEMA.
- Learn how to appeal a FEMA decision. All applicants may appeal.

If you want to discuss your application, you should have your nine-digit FEMA registration number and ZIP code available.
