

Disaster Recovery Centers Open in Okmulgee and Pottawatomie Counties

Release Date: July 26, 2022

OKLAHOMA CITY – Joint federal/state Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs) are now open in Okmulgee and Pottawatomie counties to help survivors affected by the severe storms, tornadoes and flooding that occurred May 2-8.

Survivors from any of the seven designated counties can meet face to face with FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) specialists to get help with their disaster assistance applications, upload documents and have their questions about federal disaster assistance answered at the center.

The seven designated counties are Adair, Cherokee, Muskogee, Okmulgee, Pottawatomie, Seminole and Tulsa.

The Disaster Recovery Centers are open at the following locations:

Okmulgee County

Trinity Baptist Church

830 West Ozark St.

Morris, OK 74445

Hours: 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday.

Closed on Sunday.

Pottawatomie County
