

Disaster Recovery Centers

Release Date: October 26, 2023

LAKE MARY, Fla – Disaster Recovery Centers are locations, either inside fixed locations or in tents outside, set up in areas affected by disasters. FEMA works with the county to select locations convenient for the survivors.

At a Disaster Recovery Center survivors can:

- Learn about disaster assistance programs.
- Apply for disaster assistance.
- Check the status of your FEMA application.
- Get help understanding FEMA notices or letters.
- Get referrals to agencies that offer other assistance.
- Submit an appeal of FEMA's decision.
- Meet with an SBA representative for information about disaster loans.
- Meet with state agency representatives.
- Meet with hazard mitigation specialists to learn how to build back stronger, to prevent or reduce damage from future disasters.

Disaster Recovery Centers are accessible to people with disabilities. They have assistive technology equipment that allows disaster survivors to interact with staff. Video Remote Interpreting is available and in-person sign language is available by request. The centers also have accessible parking, ramps and restrooms.

It is not necessary to visit a center. Survivors can apply or get other assistance by calling 800-621-3362, going online at disasterassistance.gov, or using the FEMA mobile app. The line is open every day from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. ET. Help is available in most languages. If you use a relay service, such as video relay (VRS), captioned telephone or other service, give FEMA your number for that service.
