

Agriculture Recovery Center to be in Sioux County, July 30

Release Date: July 25, 2024

State, federal and local agencies, in conjunction with farming industry groups, will host a one-day Agriculture Recovery Center in Sioux County on Tuesday, July 30, noon to 8 p.m., to help lowans recover from flooding and storm damage.

The walk-through event, designed as a resource fair, will provide information on addressing agricultural or rural needs that are not covered by standard programs offered by FEMA or the state of Iowa. The U.S. Department of Agriculture, the Iowa Insurance Division and other government agencies are working with industry organizations such as Iowa Pork Producers, Iowa Soybean and Iowa Cattlemen to ensure unmet needs are identified and resources are shared.

This event on Tuesday, July 30, from noon to 8 p.m., will be held at:

Sioux County

Dordt University – Agriculture Stewardship Building

3648 US-75,

Sioux Center, Iowa 51250
