A DRC will also open on July 31 in Ohio County at Triadelphia Community Center. To find a DRC closest to you, visit fema.gov/drc.

If you have disaster-related needs that your insurance does not pay for, FEMA may be able to help. If you have insurance, file your insurance claim first. Then apply for FEMA assistance at DisasterAssistance.gov to help with any uninsured losses. Residents can also call the FEMA Helpline at 1-800-621-3362 or visit fema.gov/DRC for in-person support.

As a reminder, accepting FEMA funds will not affect eligibility for Social Security – including Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) – Medicare, Medicaid, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, or other federal benefit programs. FEMA assistance does not need to be repaid.
