

Disaster Recovery Center Closed on September 8

Release Date: September 4, 2025

ST. LOUIS – The Disaster Recovery Center at the Urban League Entrepreneurship and Women’s Business Center will be closed for one day on Monday, September 8, 2025. The center will reopen on Tuesday, September 9. Help is still available at the Disaster Recovery Center at Union Tabernacle M.B. Church.

Disaster Recovery Centers provide face-to-face help for people whose homes and personal property were damaged or destroyed by the May 16 tornado.

FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration are helping impacted residents with their disaster assistance applications, answering questions, and uploading required documents. Both centers remain open until further notice.
