

Lost Income

FEMA

Lost income due to evacuation, work closure, or injury from the Hermit's Peak/Calf Canyon fire is eligible for compensation. Below are the preferred document options to submit for lost income.

If you do not have access to any of the documents listed below or are struggling to find them, please still submit your claim. Your Claims Navigator will work with you to find an alternative solution that best fits your situation.

What do I need to claim reimbursement for lost income?

1 Cause of Lost Income

Provide documents that best support your specific loss. You can provide documents to demonstrate multiple causes of lost income for the entire period of lost income.

Evacuation

Provide 1

- Utility or other bills
- Pay stubs or other employer documents
- Rent receipts
- Leasing/Housing agreements

Work Closure

- Letter from employer verifying the work closure or lost wages were due to circumstances caused by the fire and flooding

Injury

Provide 1

- Medical records or bills
- Letter or statement from physician as to nature, cause, and severity of injury directly linking it to the fire.
- Letter from employer verifying absenteeism due to injury.

2 Lost Income

Provide documents that best support your specific type of loss:

Lost Income

Provide one:

- 3 months of pay stubs (Preferred)
- 3 months of payroll checks
- 3 months of bank statements showing direct deposits
- For cash income, a declaration defining your type of work, normal hourly rate, and estimated lost labor hours

If you were employed for less than 3 months prior to the fire, please include a letter from your employer to verify employment.

Lost Employment

Provide as many as readily available:

- Documentation or notification of loss of employment
- Unemployment application, along with any unemployment benefits received
- Pay stubs on bank account statements indicating a loss of income

If you do not have any of the documents listed above, you can also submit a copy of your Federal or State tax returns from for the year before lost income and year during lost income (2021 & 2022)
