PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

This Notice is provided in accordance with the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(3), and concerns the information requested in the Notice of Loss form to which this Notice is attached. The authority for the collection of this information is Hermit's Peak/Calf Canyon Fire Assistance Act, Public Law 117-180. The information you provide will be used to verify your identity, to verify your eligibility, and to verify any previous compensation made in connection with the Hermit's Peak/Calf Canyon Fire. Some or all of the information you provide may be released to federal, state, and local government agencies or private organizations for the purpose of confirming your identity, your eligibility and any previous compensation or payments made in connection with the Hermit's Peak/Calf Canyon Fire. The information may also be released when otherwise authorized by statute or regulation. Disclosure of the information by you is required in order for you to make a claim under the Act. It will not be possible to process your claim without the information.

Routine Uses: The Privacy Act permits us to disclose information about individuals without their consent for a routine use, i.e., when the information will be used for a purpose that is compatible with the purpose for which we collected the information. The routine uses of this system are:

- a) Disclosure may be made to agency contractors who have been engaged to assist the agency in the performance of a contract service related to this system of records and who need to have access to the records in order to perform the activity. Recipients shall be required to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a.
- b) Disclosure may be made to a member of Congress or to a Congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the Congressional office made at the written request of the constituent about whom the record is maintained.
- c) Disclosure may be made to other Federal agencies that FEMA has determined provided Hermit's Peak/Calf Canyon fire-related assistance to claimant in order to ensure that benefits are not duplicated.
- d) Disclosure of information submitted by an individual claimant may be made to an insurance company or other third party which has submitted a subrogation claim relating to such claimant when it is necessary in FEMA's opinion to ensure that benefits are not duplicated and to efficiently coordinate the processing of claims brought by individuals and subrogees.
- e) When a record on its face, or in conjunction with other records, indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto, disclosure may be made to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, foreign, State, local, or tribal or other public authority responsible for enforcing, investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto, if the information disclosed is relevant to any enforcement, regulatory, investigative or prosecutive responsibility of the receiving entity.
- f) Disclosure may be made to the National Archives and Records Administration for the purpose of conducting records management studies under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

Effect of Failure to Respond: Disclosure is voluntary. However, failure to supply the requested information or to execute the form may render your claim "invalid."
