

PrepTalks Resource Lists highlight publicly available materials that relate to the PrepTalk topic. These resources provide a more in-depth understanding of the topic to enhance the whole community discussion.

Neighborfest: Building Resilience from the Block Up!

- Neighborfest Host Playbook
<http://www.empowersf.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/07/Neighborfest-Host-Toolkit-2019.pdf>
This toolkit will help identify your goals, objectives, roles, and responsibilities for hosting a Neighborfest. It includes forms, checklists, and a promotional flier.
- The Neighborhood Empowerment Network Website
<http://www.empowersf.org/>
This website describes the NEN's programs and approaches.
- NEN Training Center
<http://www.empowersf.org/nen-training-center/>
This website lists a wide variety of training for residents and organizations to elevate their capacity to succeed during times of stress.
- Neighborfest: Building a Stronger, More Connected World from the Block Up
<https://medium.com/nextdooragencyresources/neighborfest-fc6fcd90f6b8>
Co-written by Daniel Homsey and Dr. Daniel Aldrich, this article describes the benefits of the Neighborfest and Map Your Resilientville programs.
- Community Emergency Response Team \(CERT\)
<https://www.ready.gov/community-emergency-response-team>
CERT training offers a consistent, nationwide approach to volunteer response training and organization.
- You Are the Help Until Help Arrives
<https://community.fema.gov/until-help-arrives>
Life-saving skills training for everyone.

The views expressed in PrepTalk presentations and the Q&A sessions are solely those of the speaker and do not represent the views of their organization or any of the PrepTalks partners.